RAMMSTEIN ART COMPILATION
BY GROOVY OCELOT

Hello!

This is a compilation of all the rammstein artwork I made on 2021 and 2022, there's complete illustrations, sketches, lineart and also some AU's and shippy art (mostly TillxFlake) based on their videos. This work is R18 for obvious reasons, so beware!

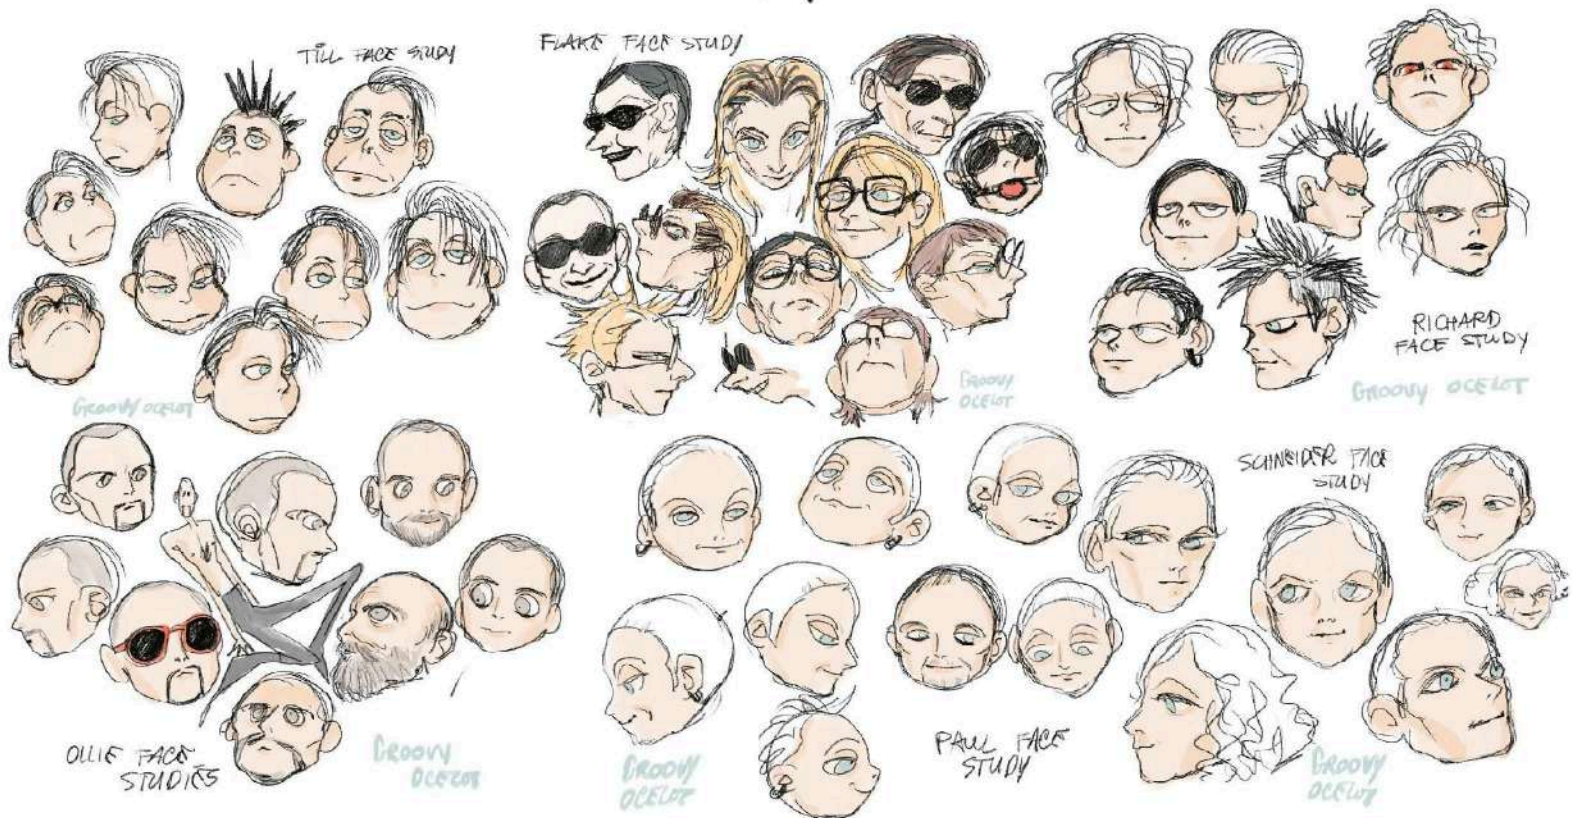

I had a lot of fun and inspiration drawing these pictures and love the band's music and work so much. Enjoy!

The moment I got obsessed with Rammstein was when I watched Buck Dich videos. Also the video of Rammstein El Sonidito (Das Kleine Ton).

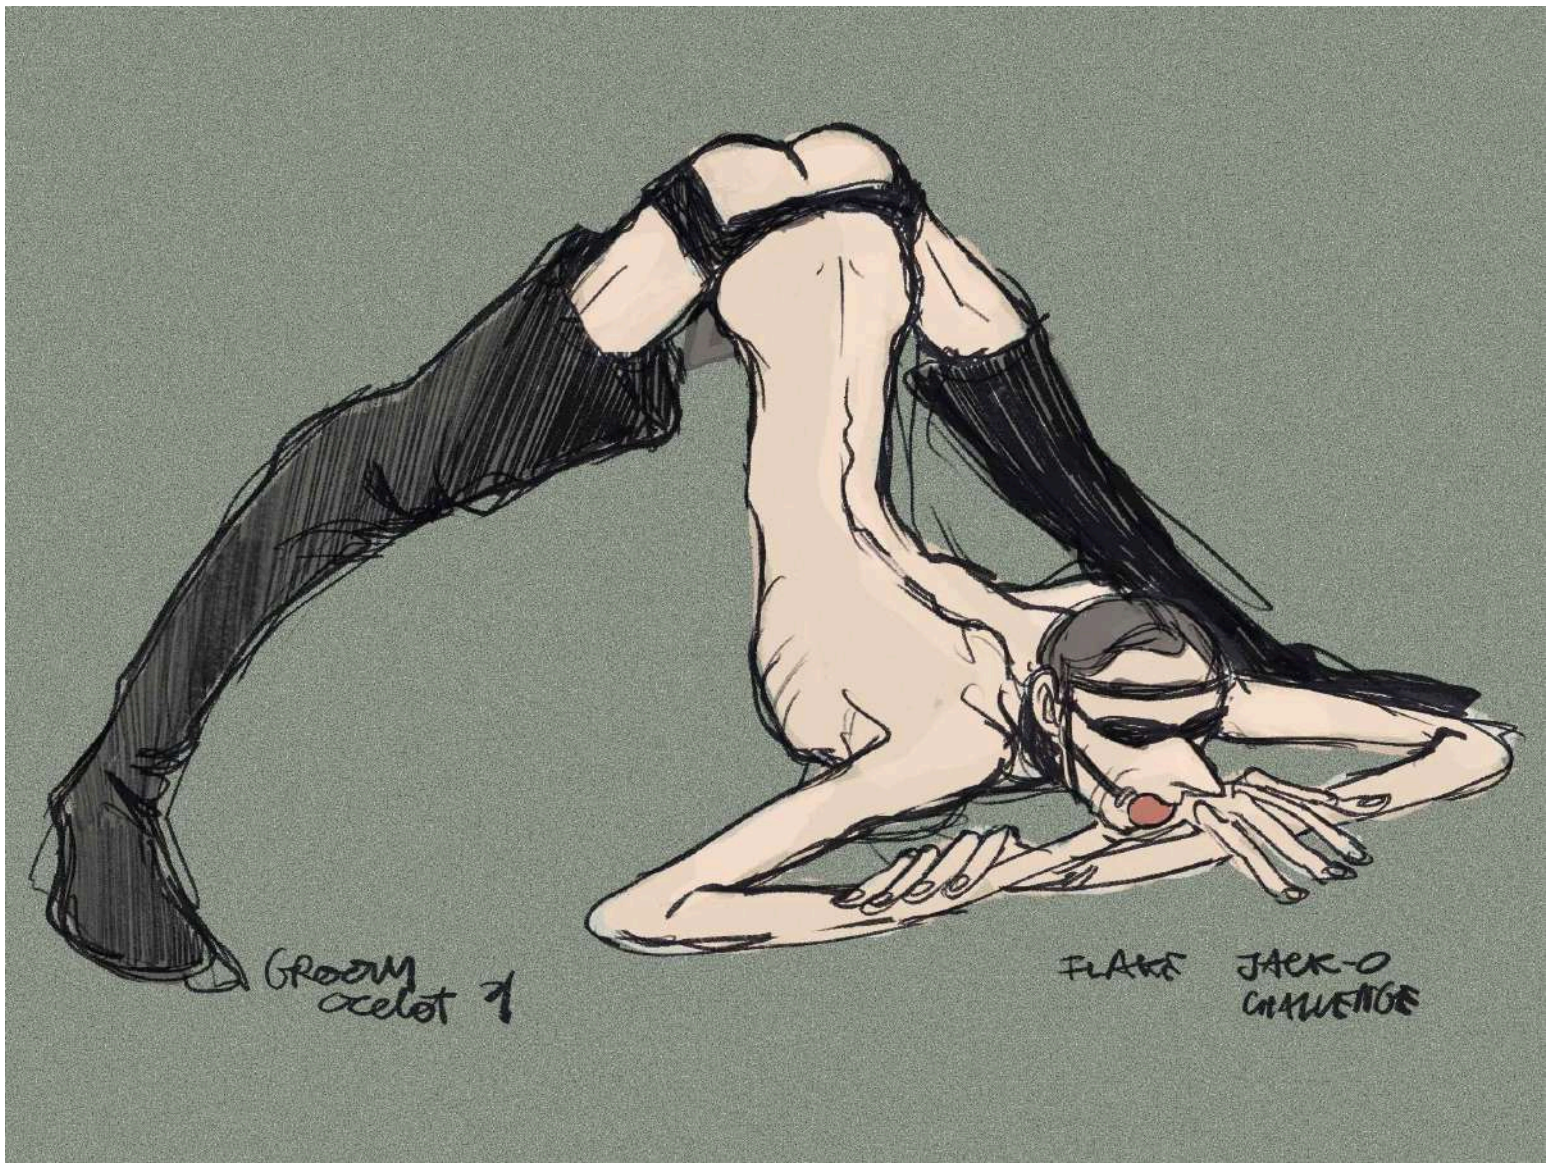

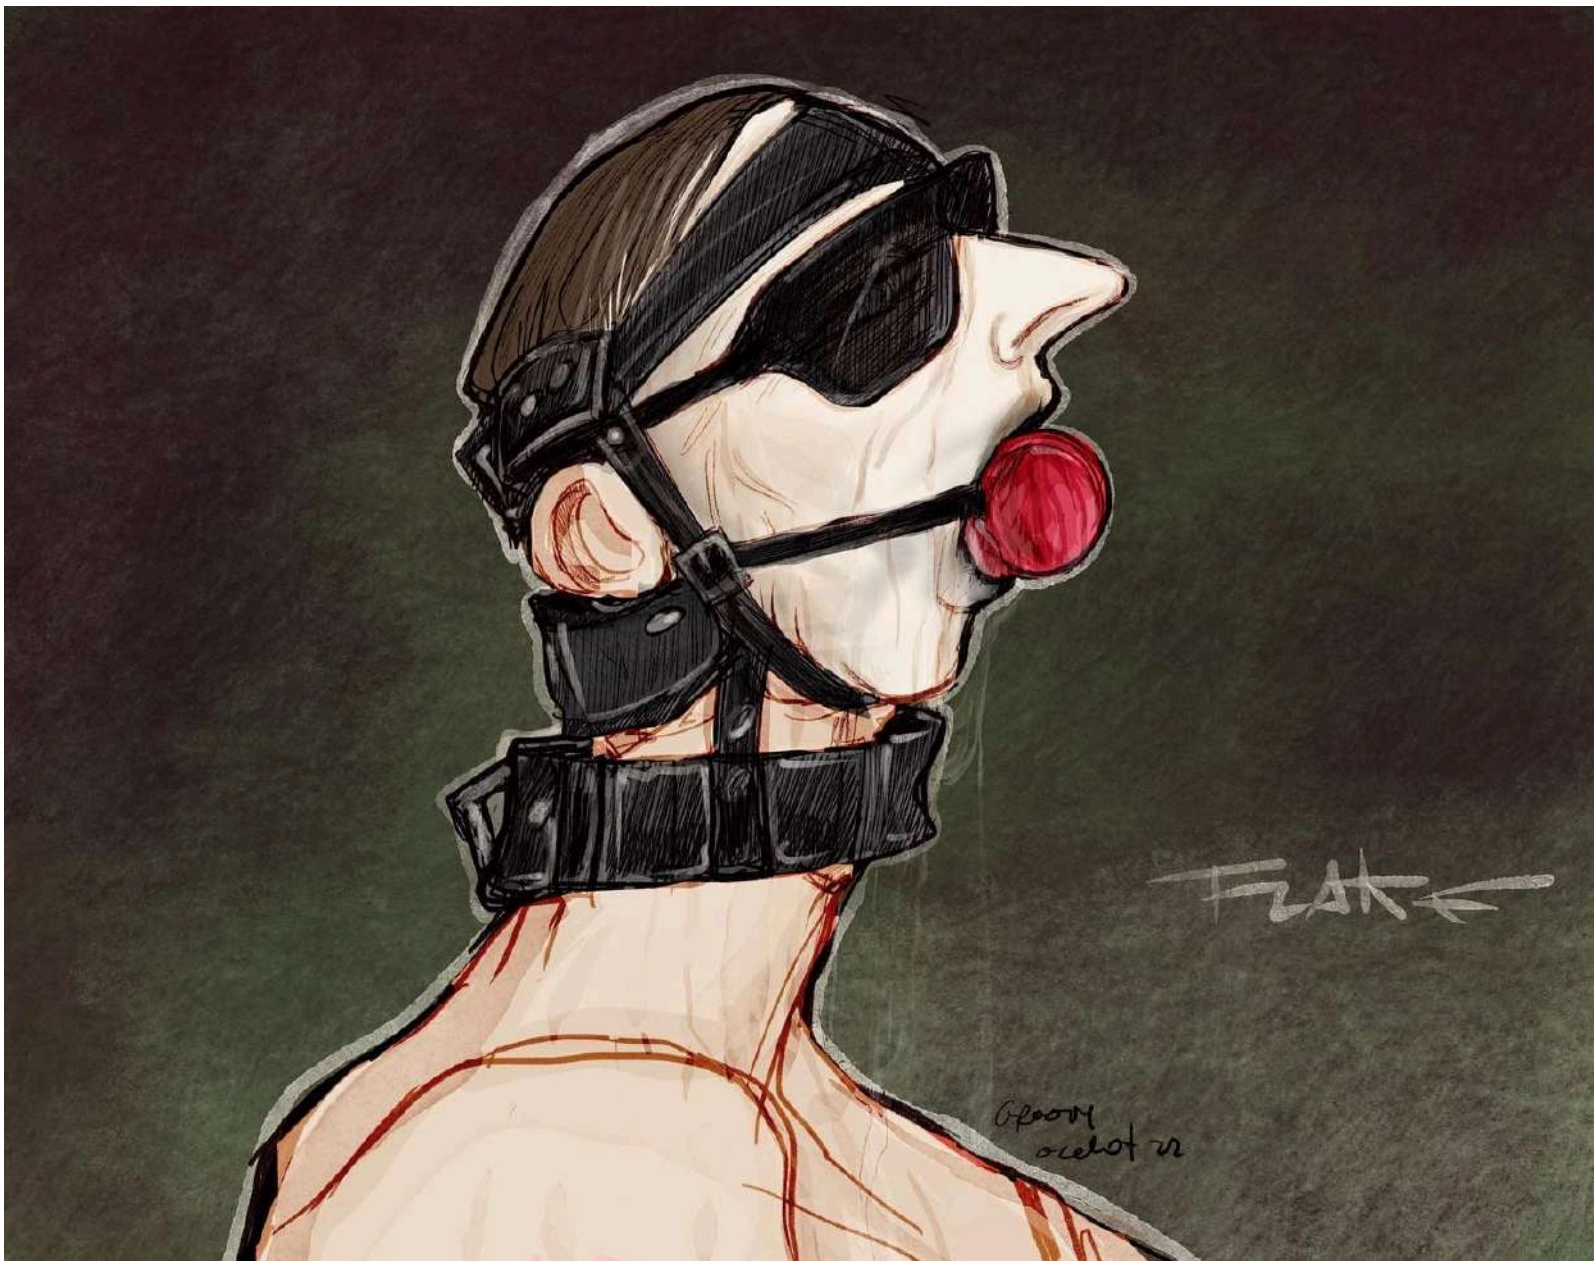

As you might have guessed, Flake is my absolute fave to draw...

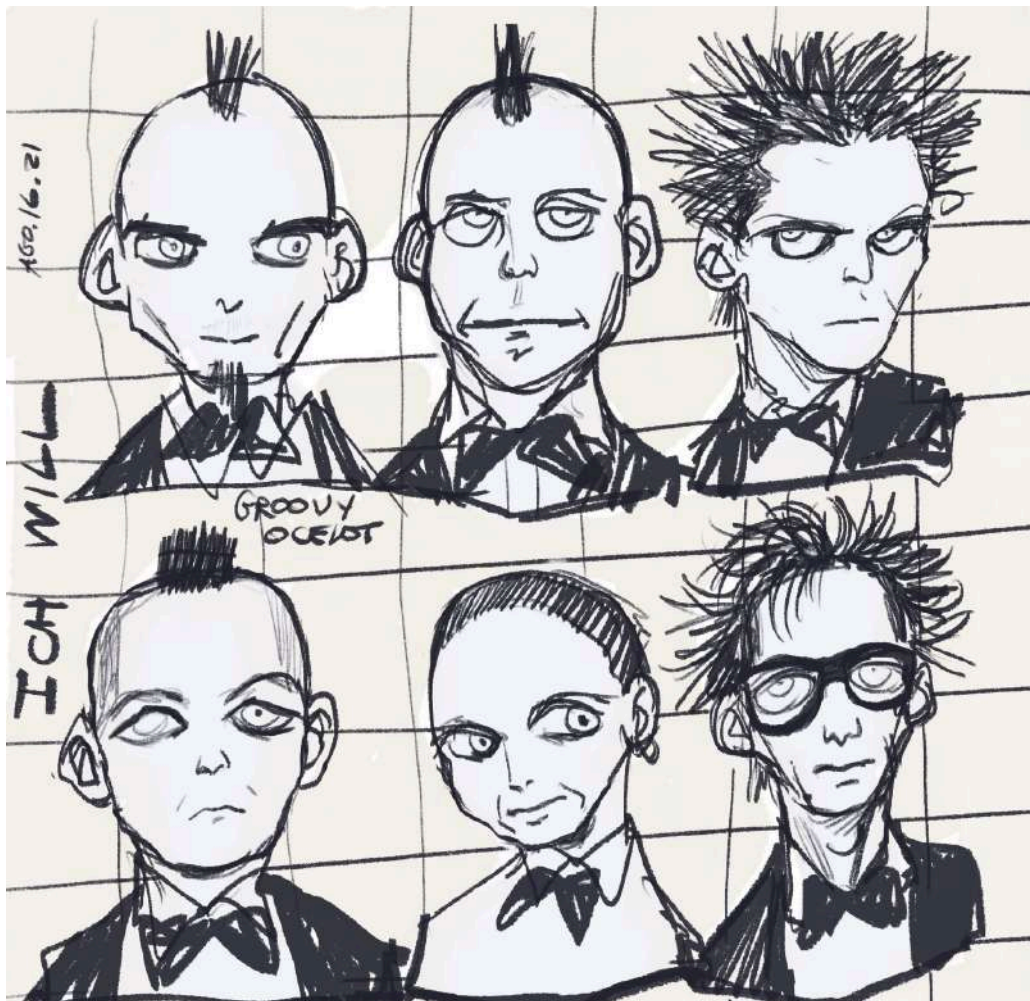

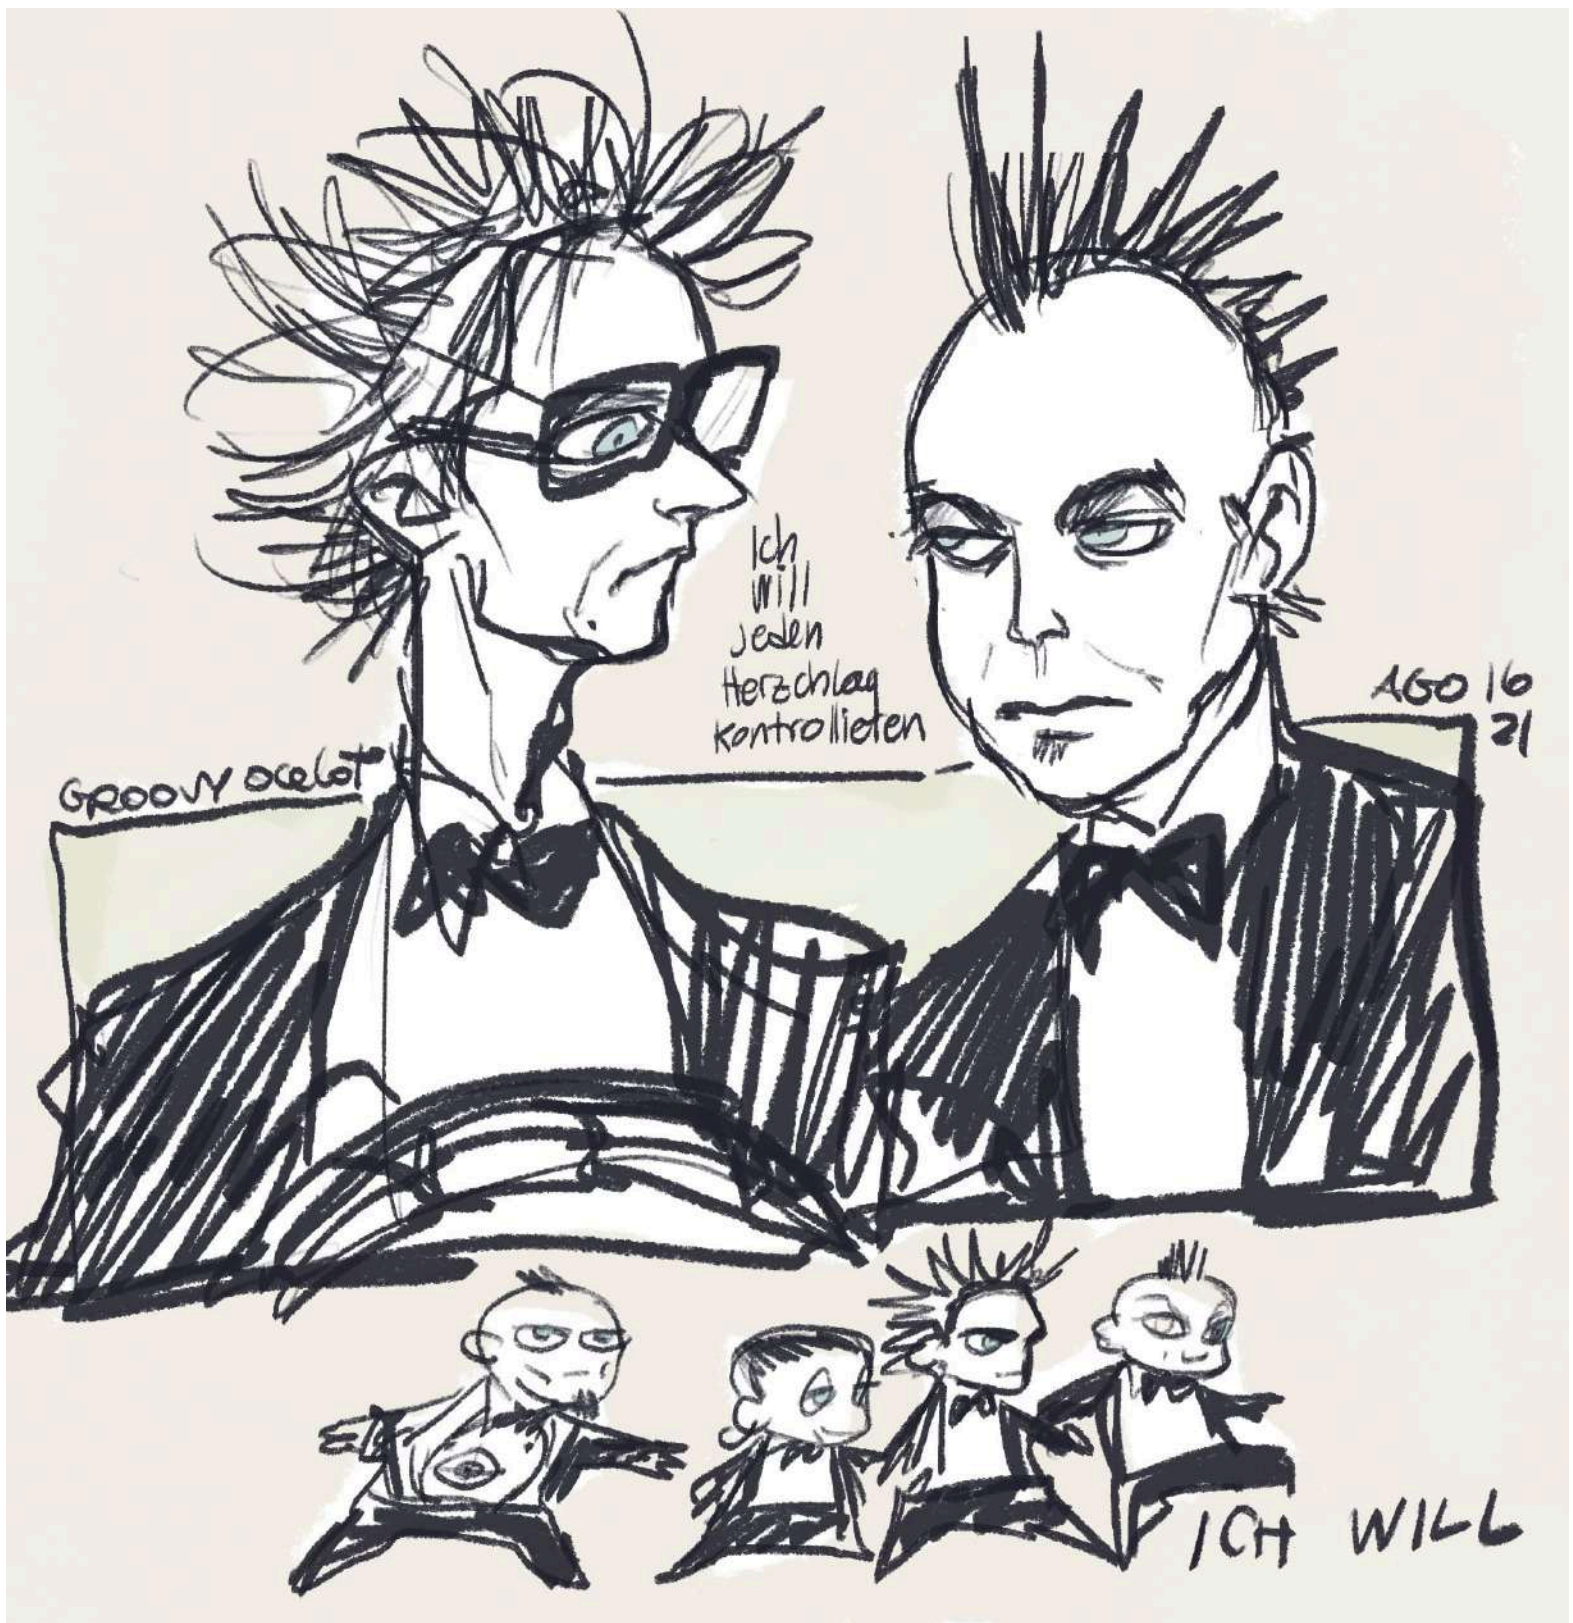

GROOVY OCTOBER 21

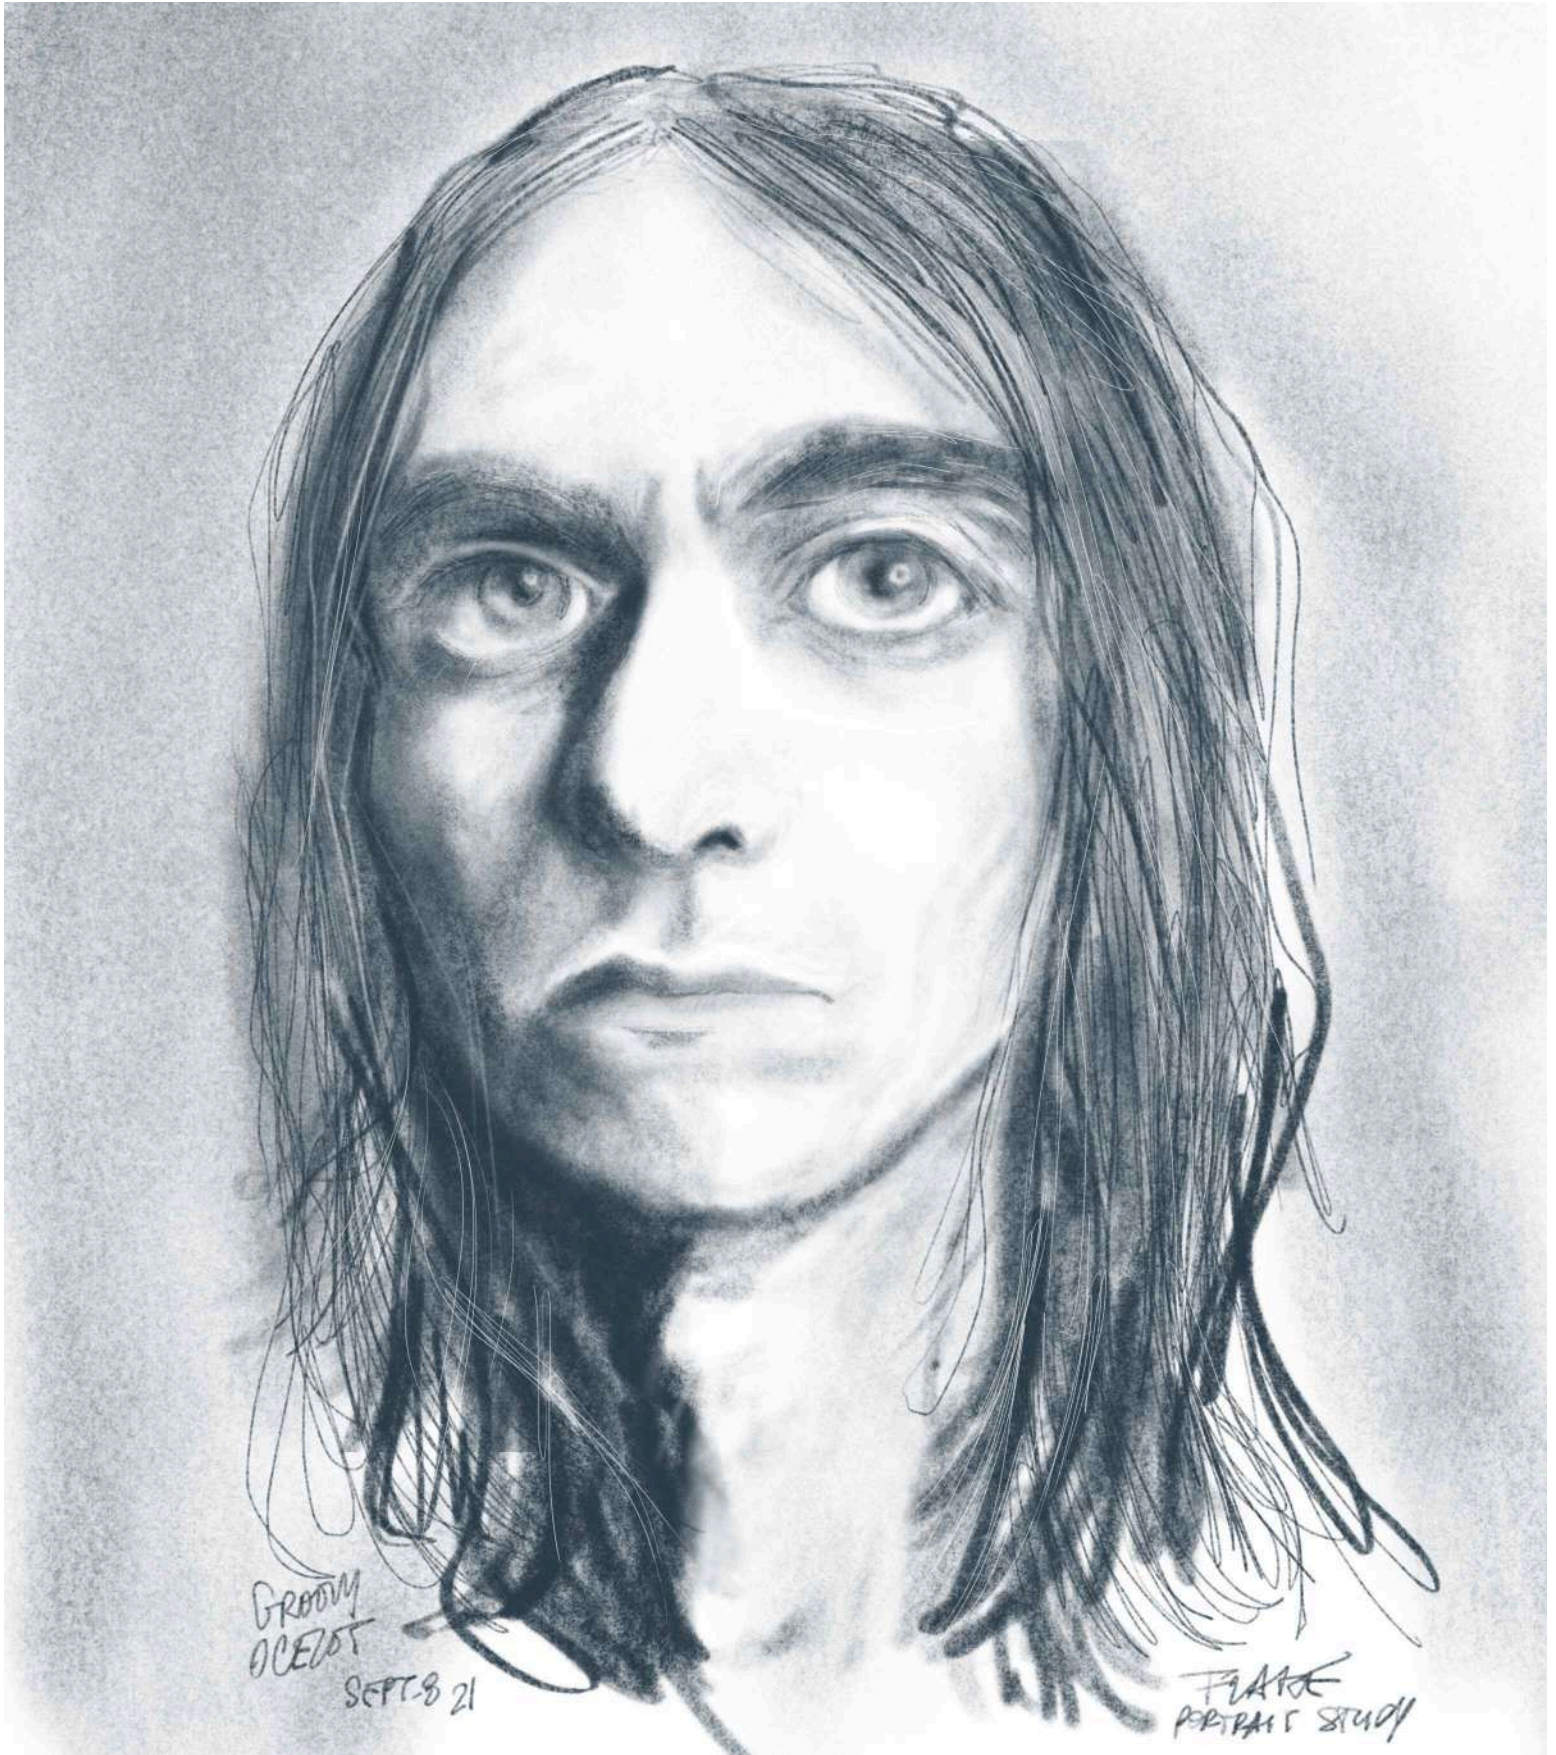

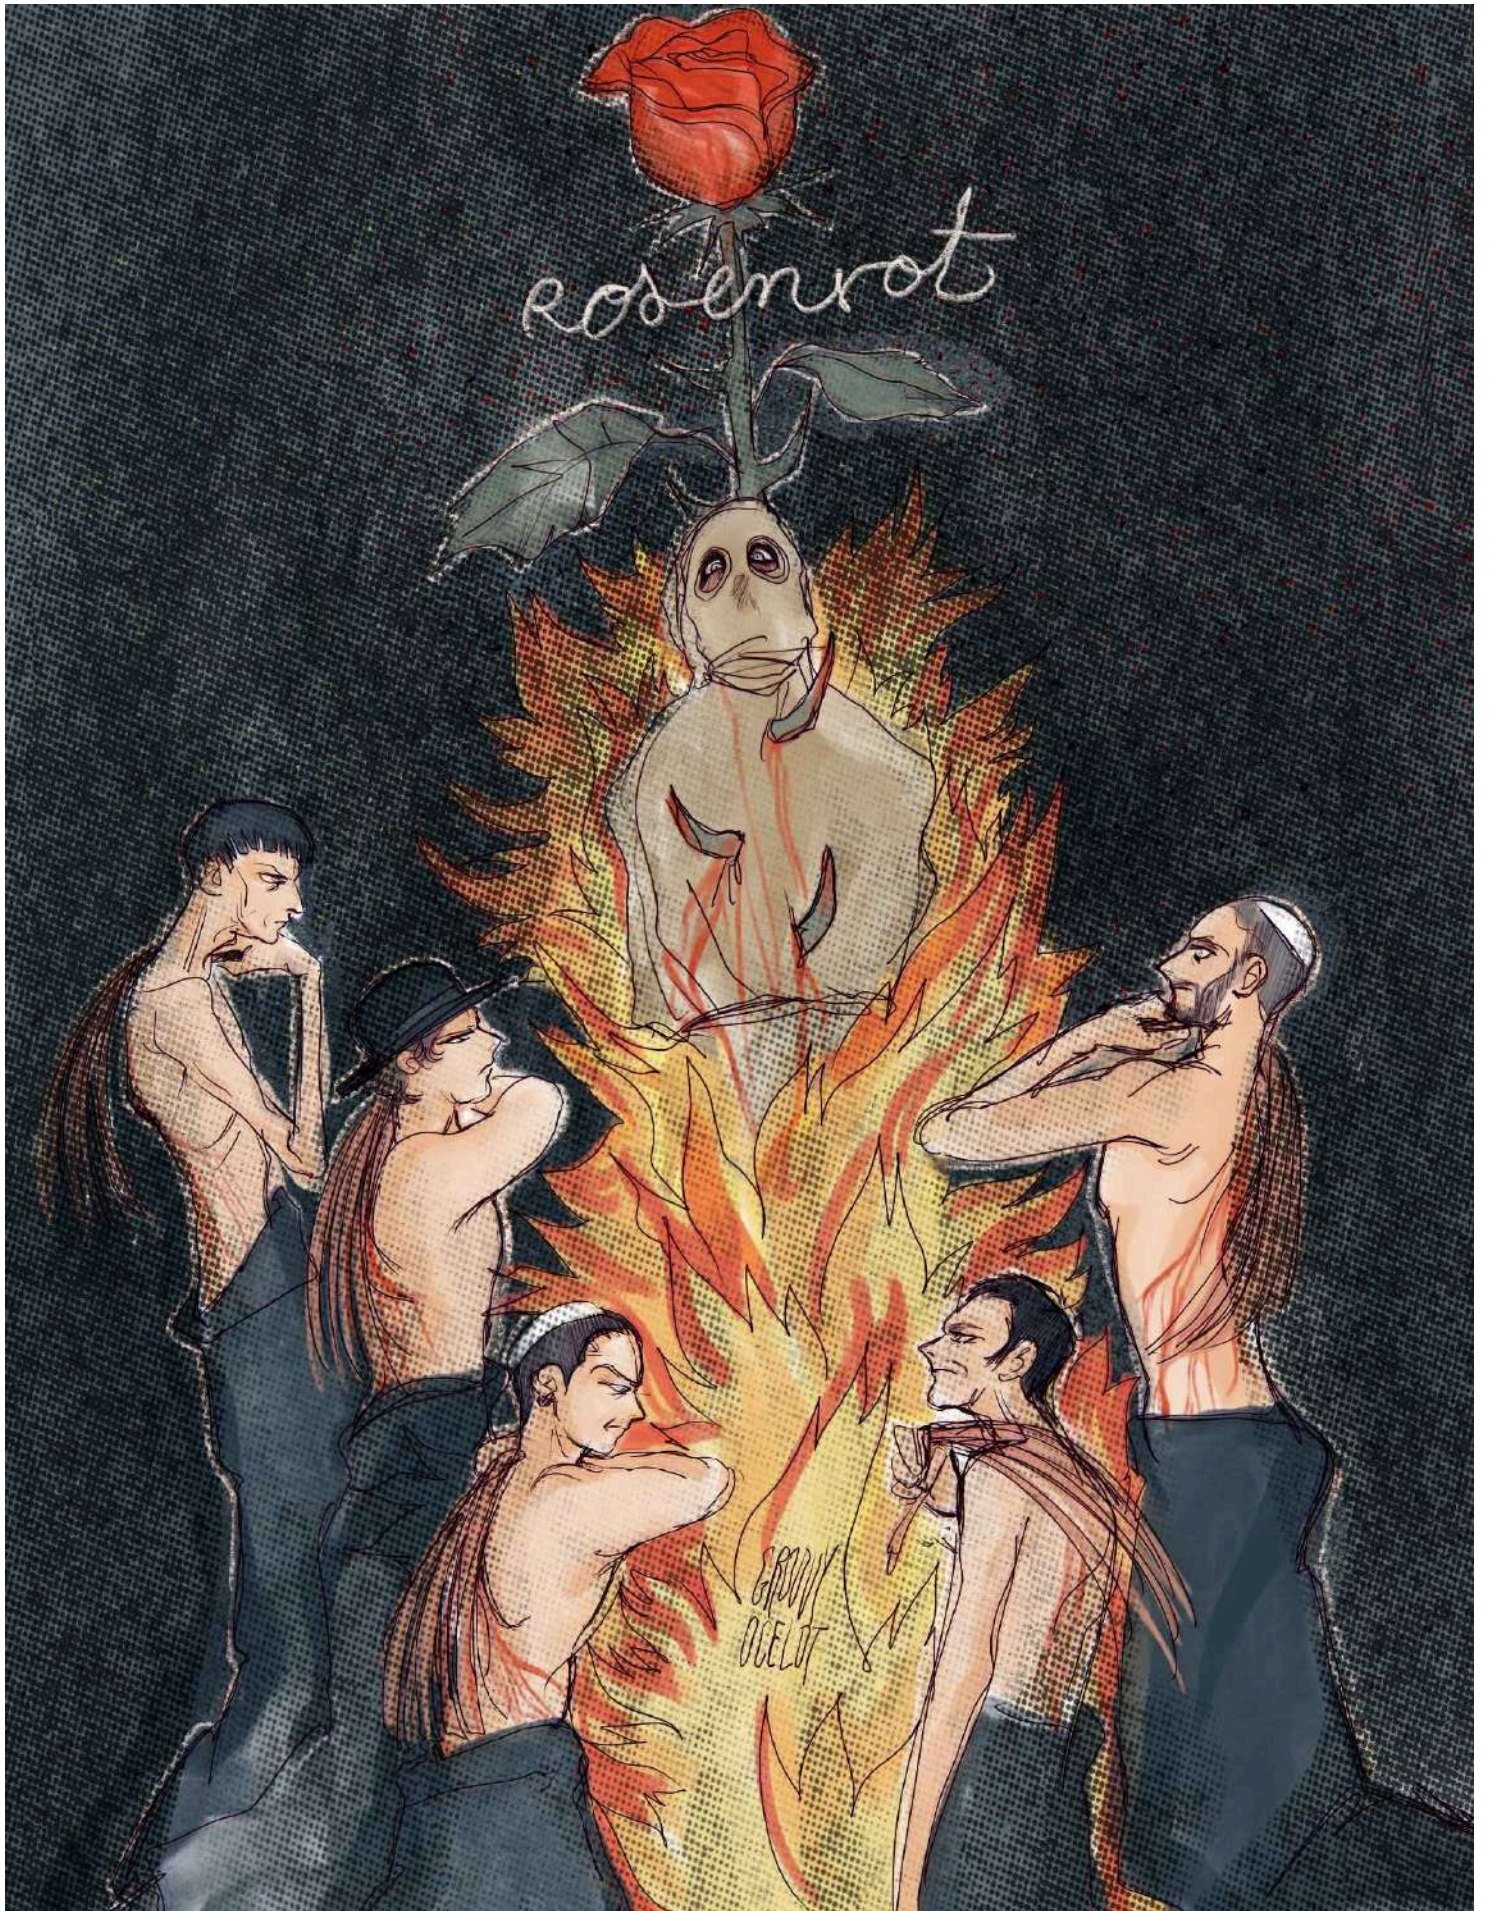

I have created many AUs and Headcanons with every Rammstein video. All of them are shippy TillxFlake.

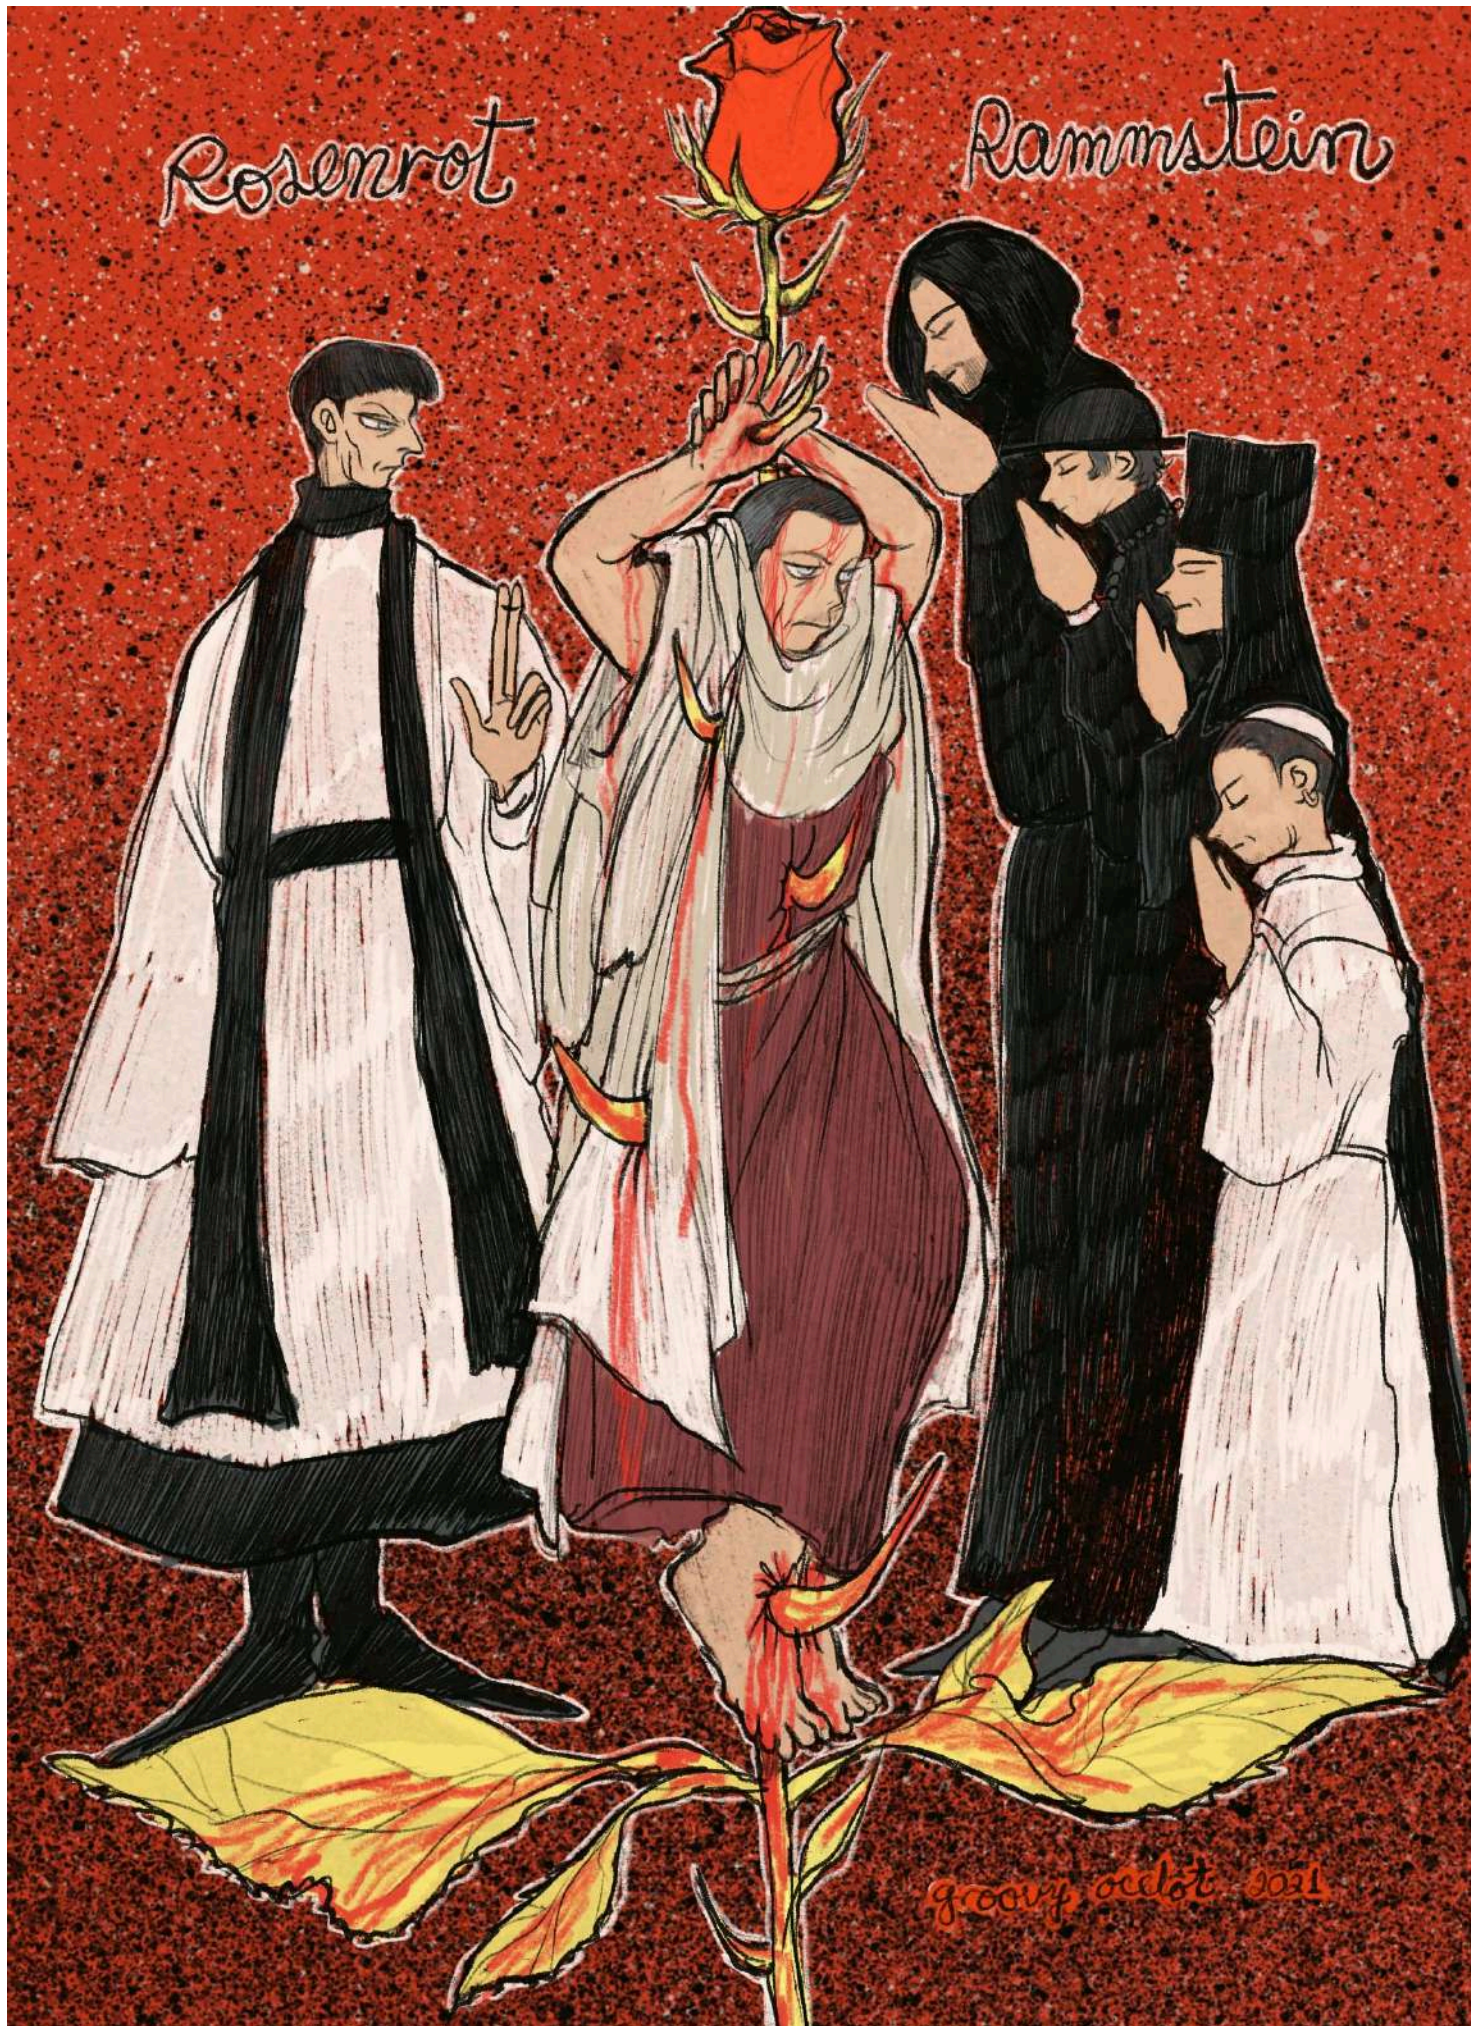

"Girl Time".

Totally obsessed with a clip of Flake riding Till in one of their first concerts...Intense times sweats.

Keine Lust is one of my fave videos. I adore the whole concept and aesthetic, plus Flake being the only bone thin character...it does things to me.

Haifisch MV gave me one of the most toxic inspos. Also I'm not into feeding kink but this might be my first exception. Just wonderful dark stuff happening here.

I sometimes have tons of ugly and unfinished sketches I use as studies, I wanted to put them here because art is about also drawing messy and not perfect things as well. Is an important side to show as well alongside the art I feel more satisfied with.

Volkerball concert makes me go full monkeh. The TillyxFlake is strong in that one. In 2005 when it happened I was just 12 years old. I would be having my yaoi awakening 2 years later.

A bunch of studies I did watching Volkerball concert :’3.

I have a huge Engel AU. HEAR ME OUT. Both Till and Flaks are angels that fell when they were tiny and so, they were trapped in the Engel MV nightclub. They are in a cage together and later get separated. Leaving Flake the worst part of the deal and many years later, Till comes back for him.

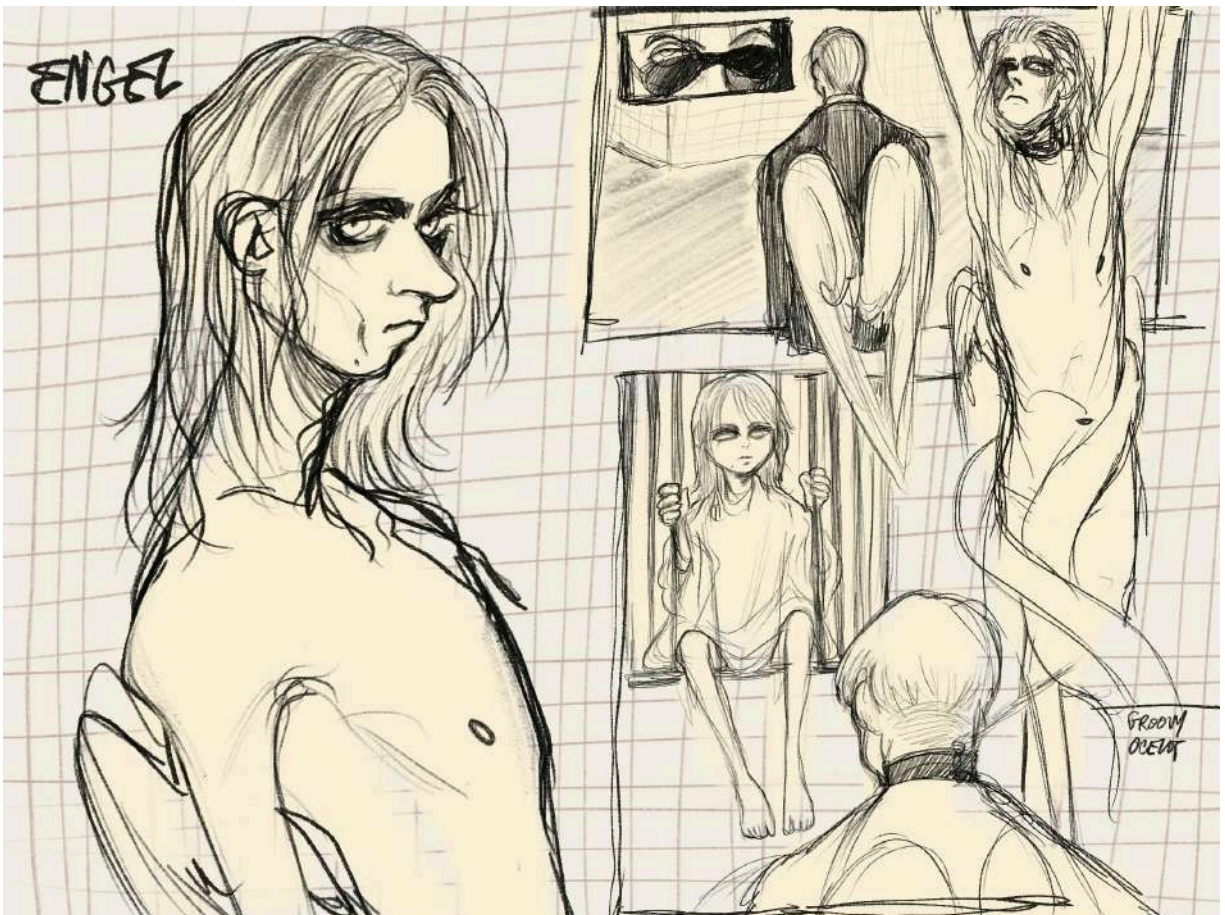

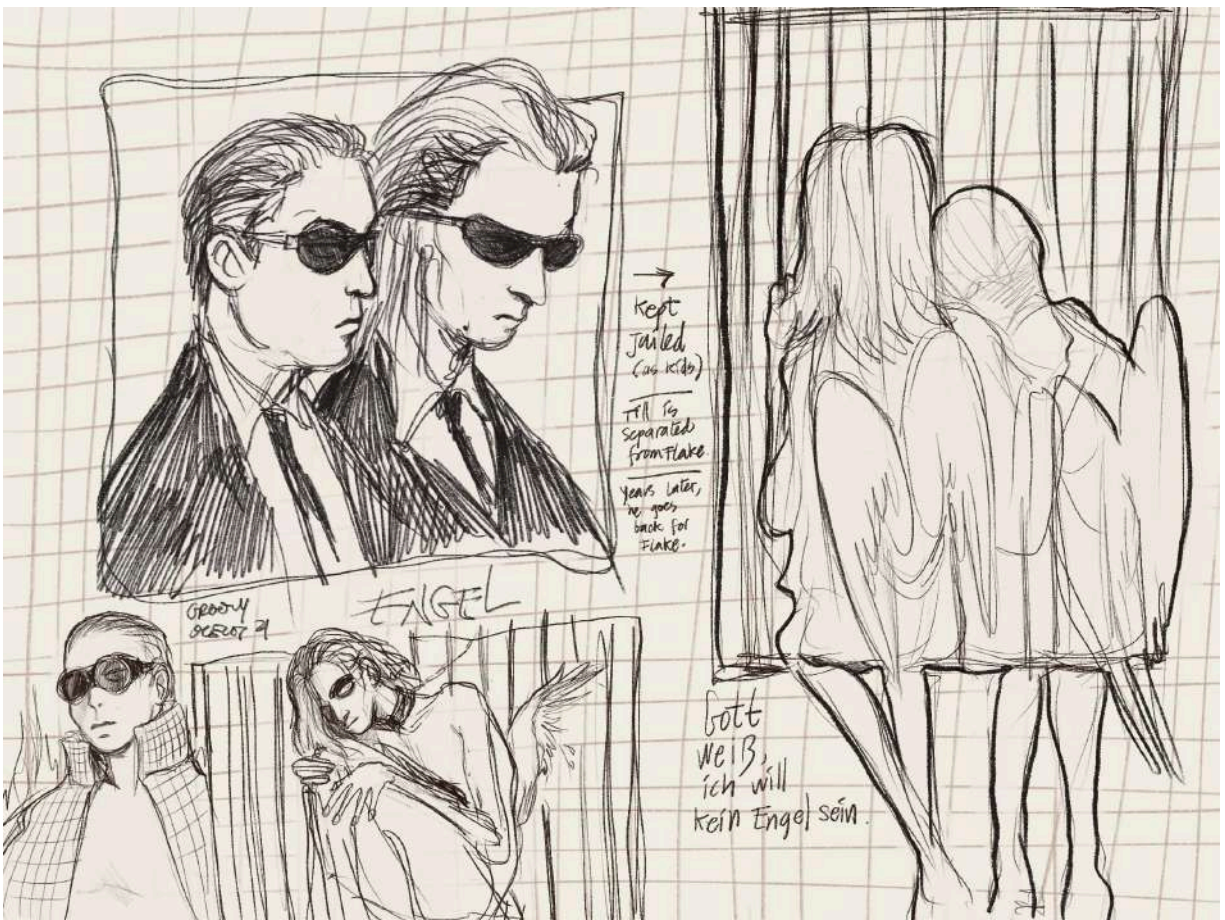

The whole Engel AU exists because of the pics in the little collage in the picture of the side. In the Engel MV you can see some singing kids that I visualize as Till and Flake and I made the connection because of Volkerball. How Till puts his head on Flake's shoulder. And then everything just felt right after seeing Flake in Engel with the shiny outfit and his painted eyes, just like the singing child.

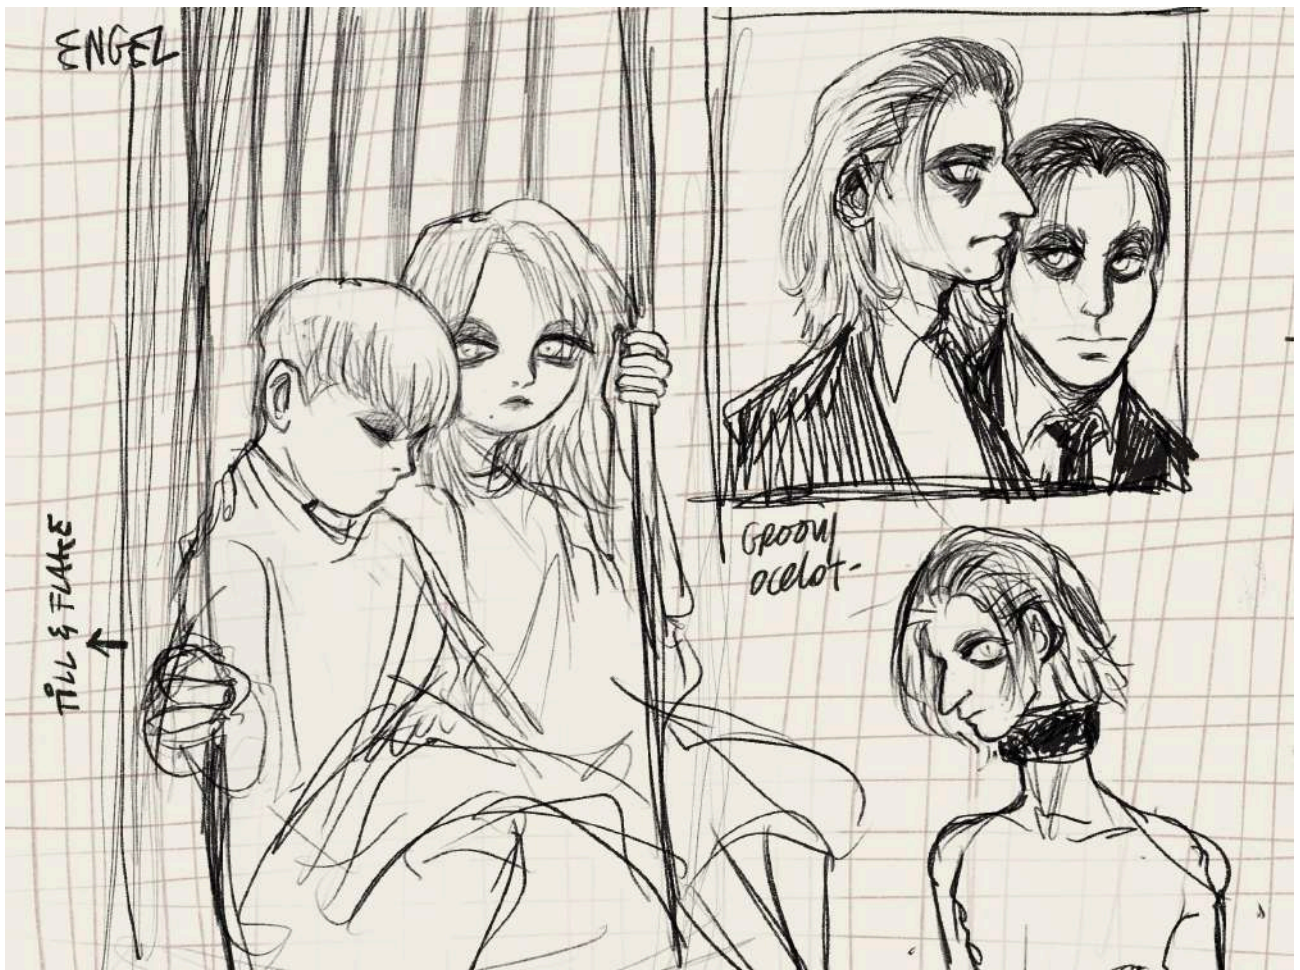

SORRY IF ALL THAT DIDN'T MAKE SENSE. But yeah...I need to work more on each AU illustrations because I'm better at explaining myself with drawings rather than words.

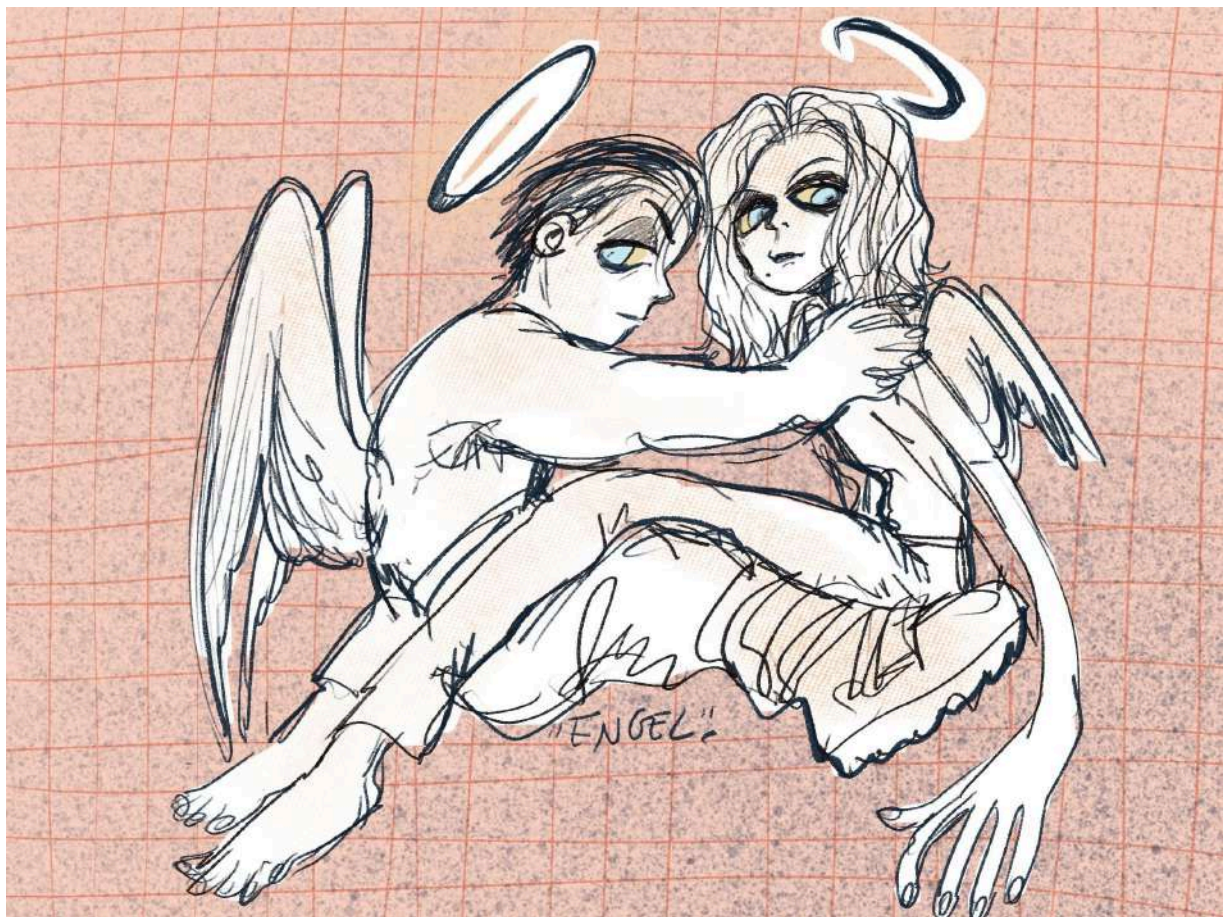

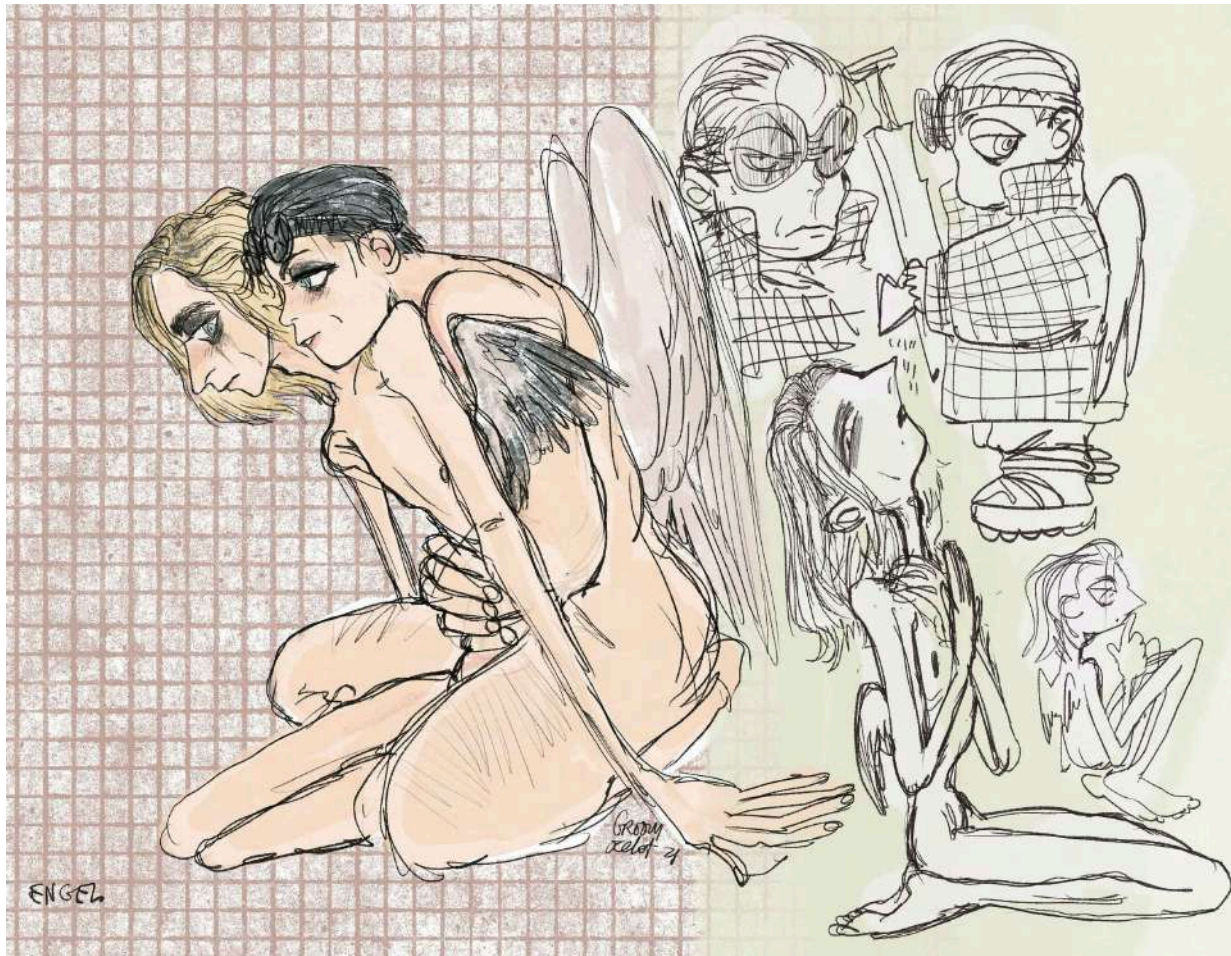

I love to think of Engel Flake having his wings damaged while Till's are big and healthy.

Then I mix up AUS, a small Engel x Mein Teil. Mein Teil TillxFlake is rabid as hell.

MEIN LAND

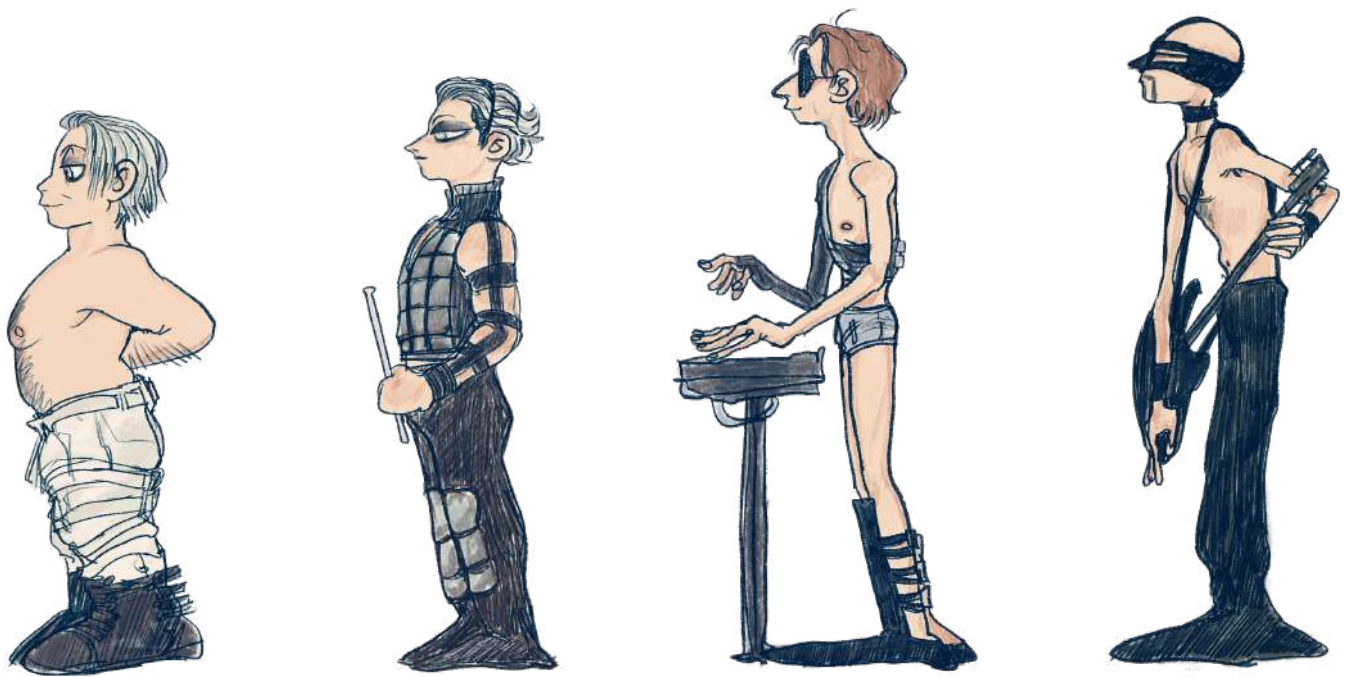

I wanted to do the Totakeke cover meme from 2020 with some of their albums. Might redraw them eventually ;w;

I made a small standee of Buck Dich. I wish I had $$ to actually offer this kind of products on my shop...

Previous sketch of the Das Kleine Ton standdee. Opted for more detailed chibi style in the end.

And this one is even more expensive to make, but the result was just ;w; ONE DAY...

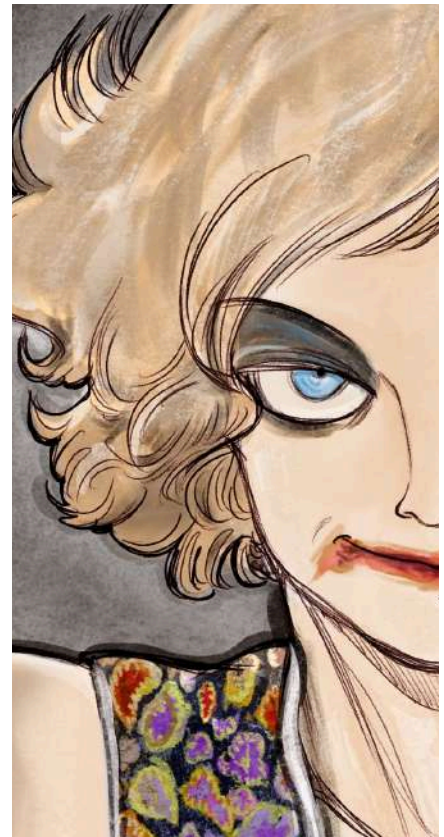

Acrylic standees are nice.

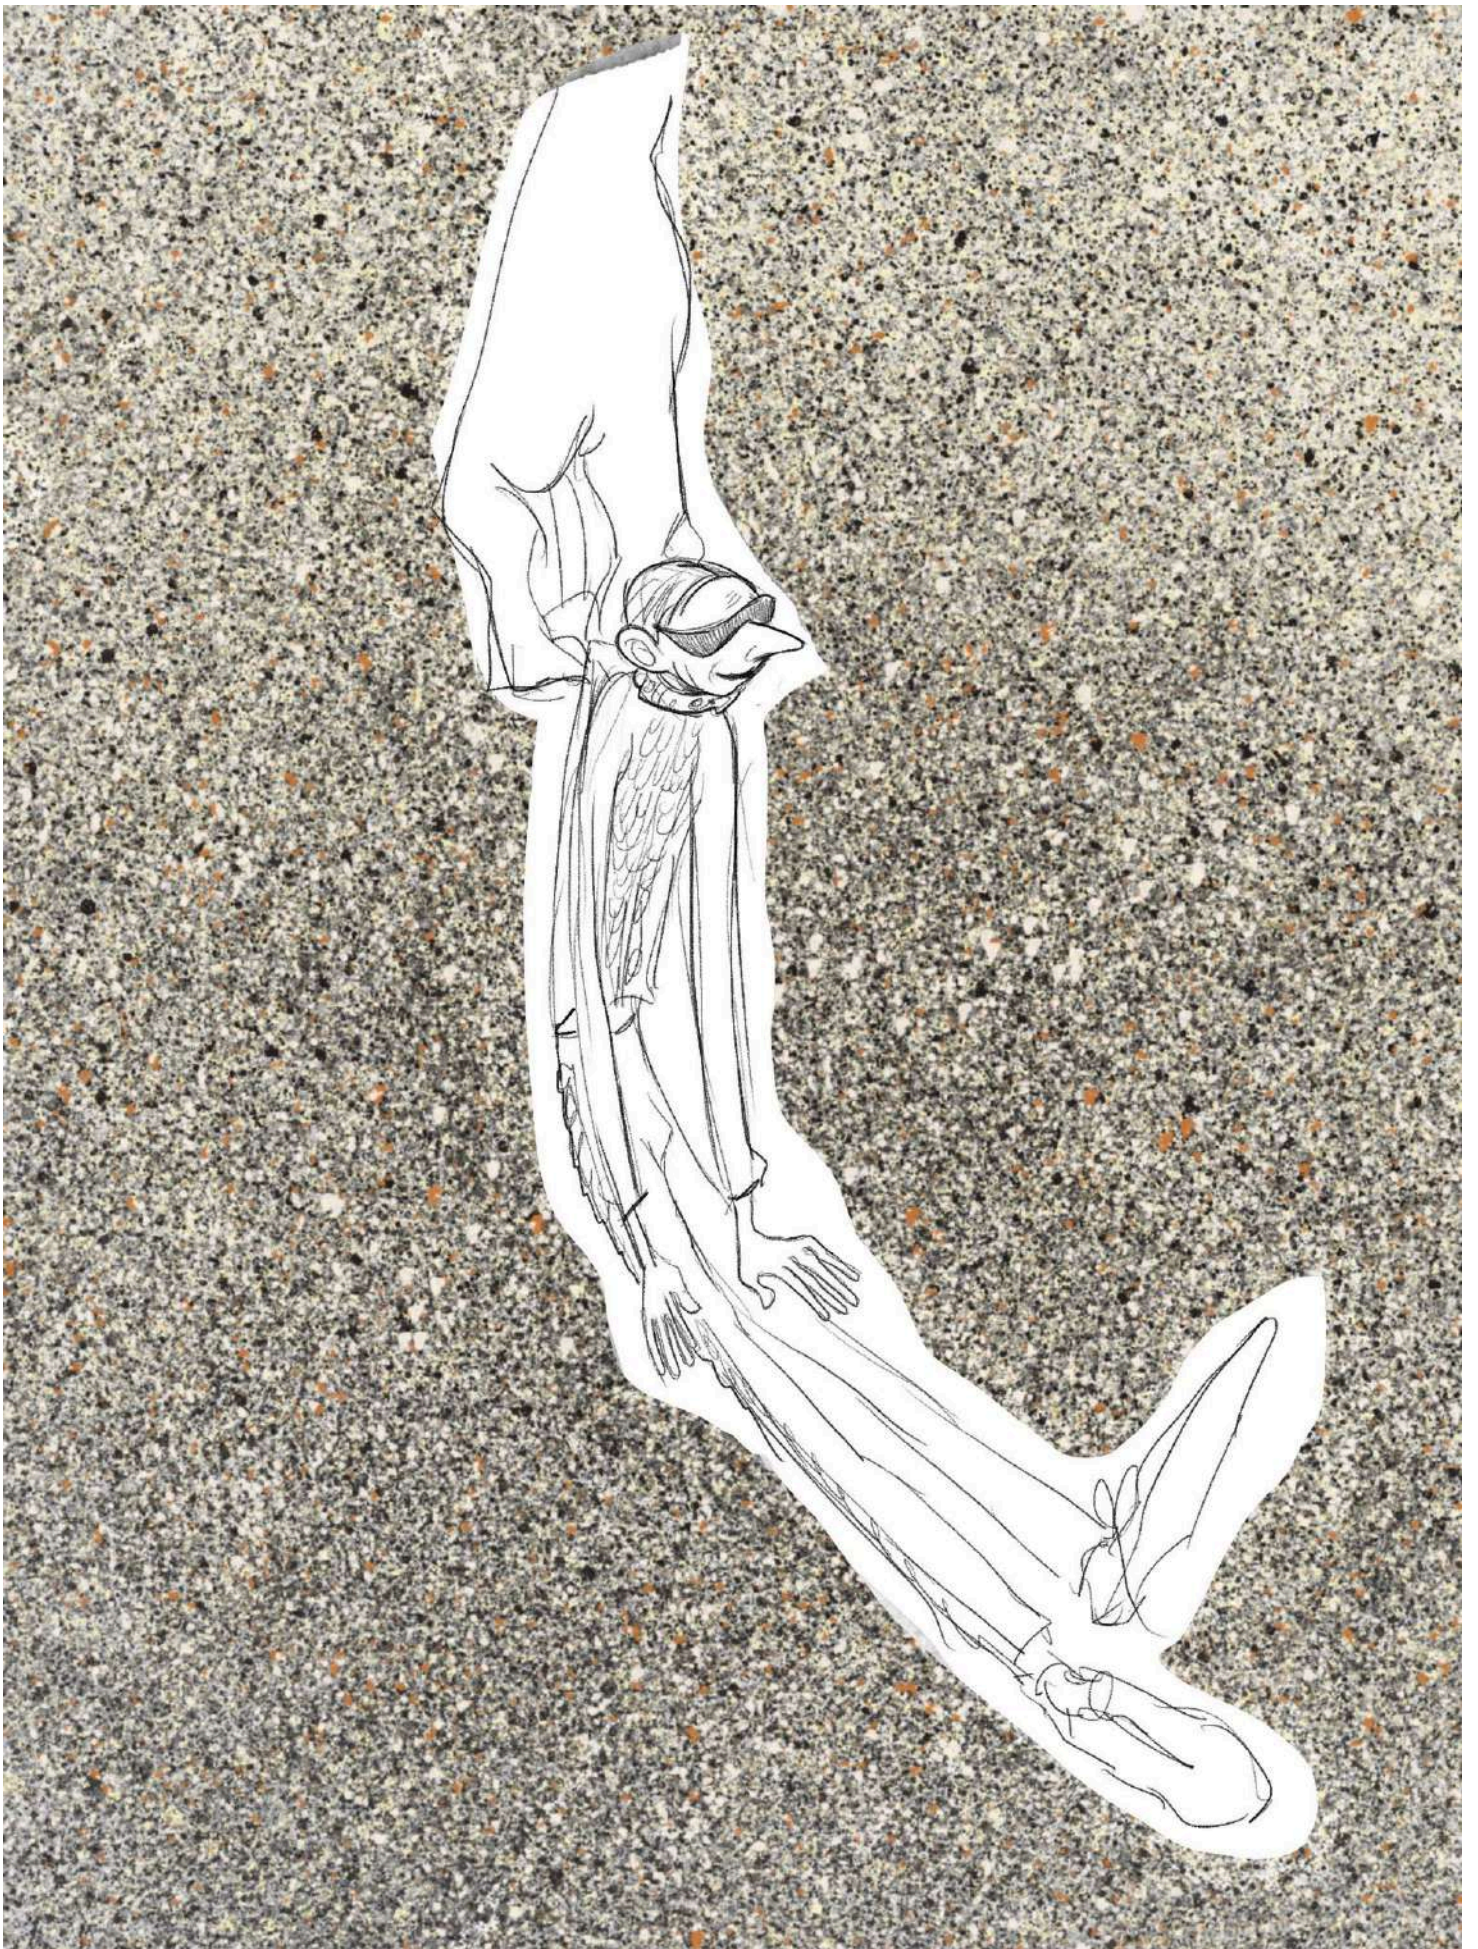

Sometimes I do silly 3D modeling.

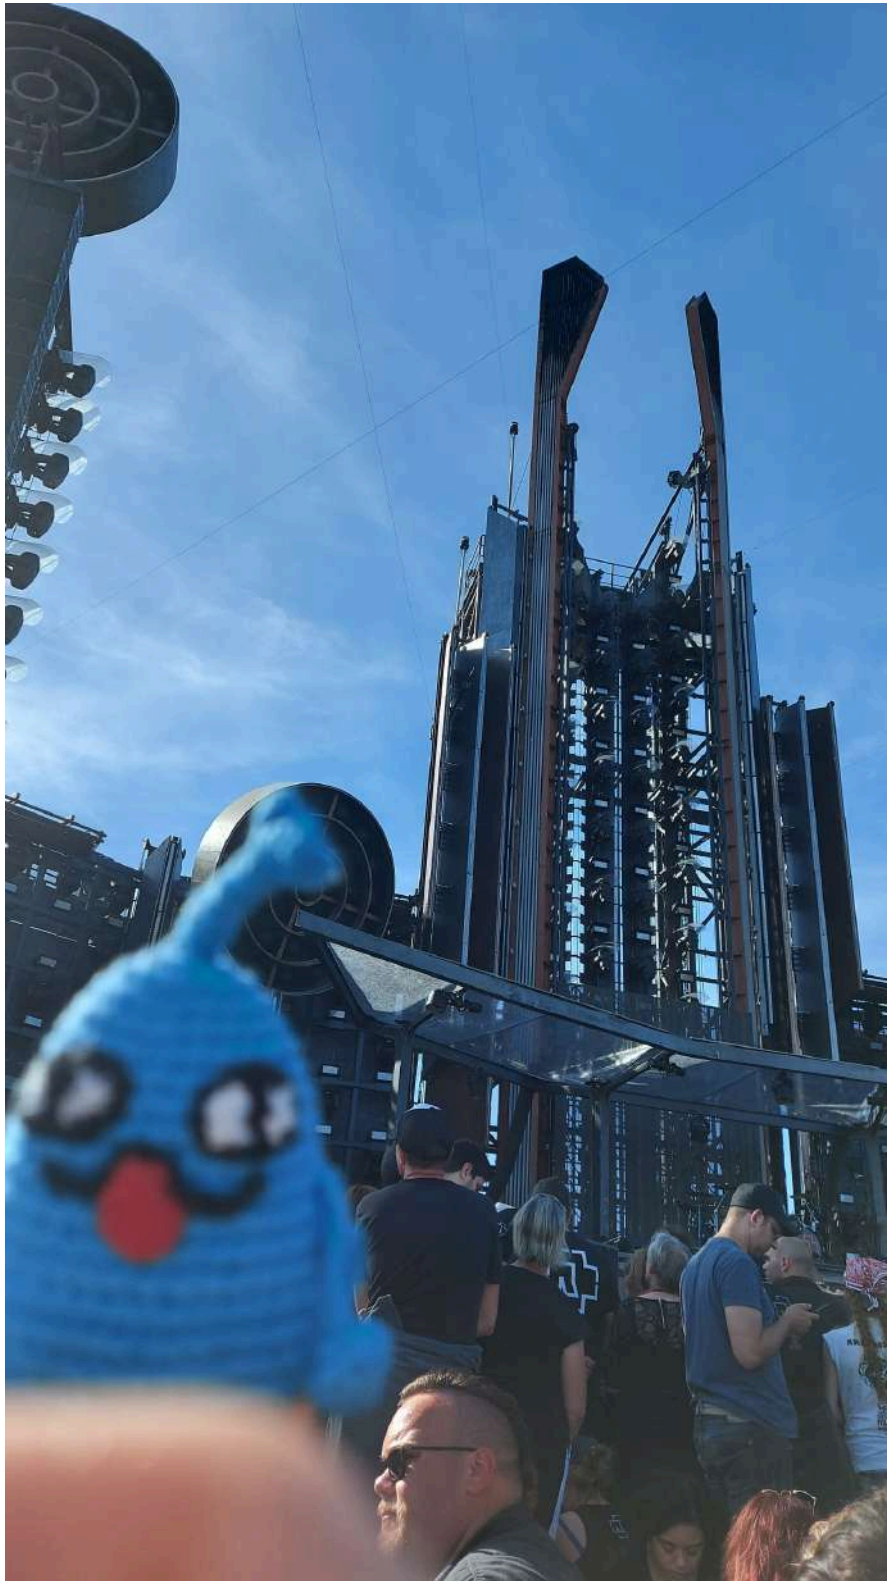

Got commissioned to draw those two! I was super happy!

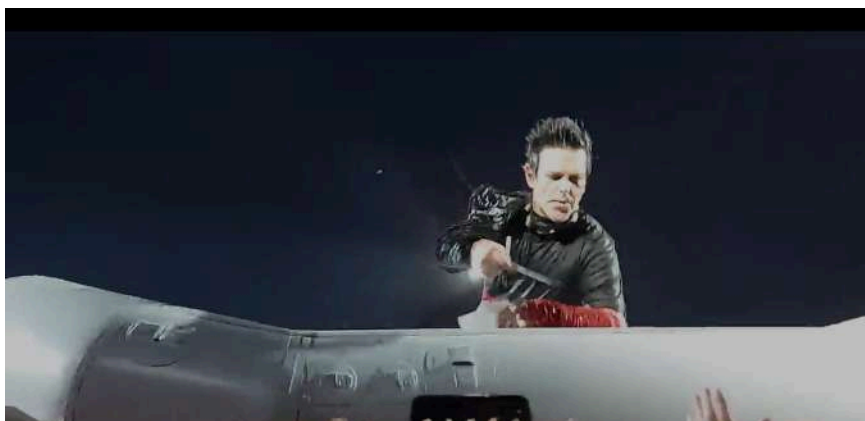

August 3 2022 was a super important day! I went to one of their concerts! I don't have the best of pictures but I will never forget it. One of the greatest achievements of my life (traveled from Central America to Belgium, where a dearest friend let me stay at her house and I could see them and also had a great time visiting her. My first time meeting an internet friend!!!
(Those silly characters are my ocs ;w;)

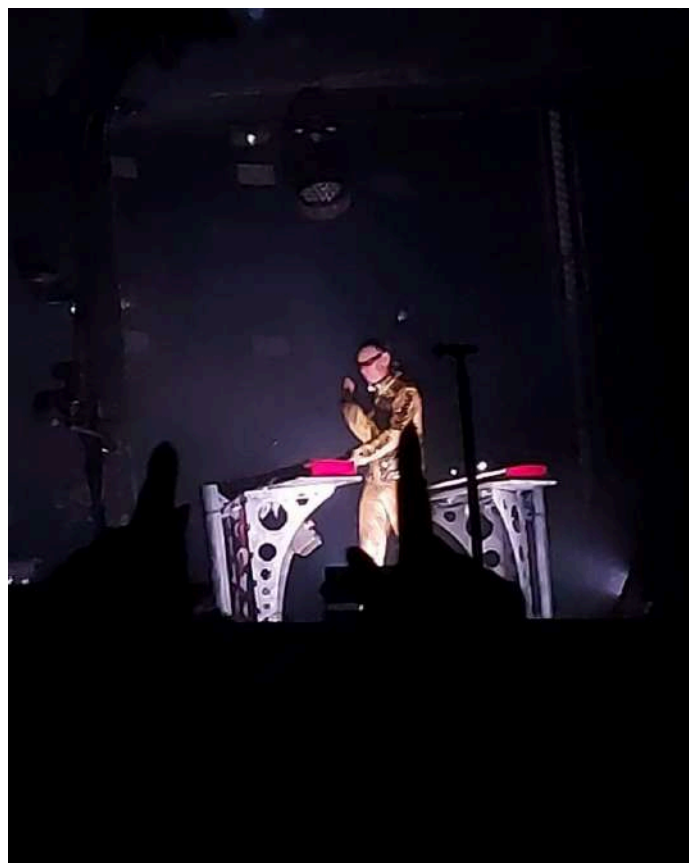

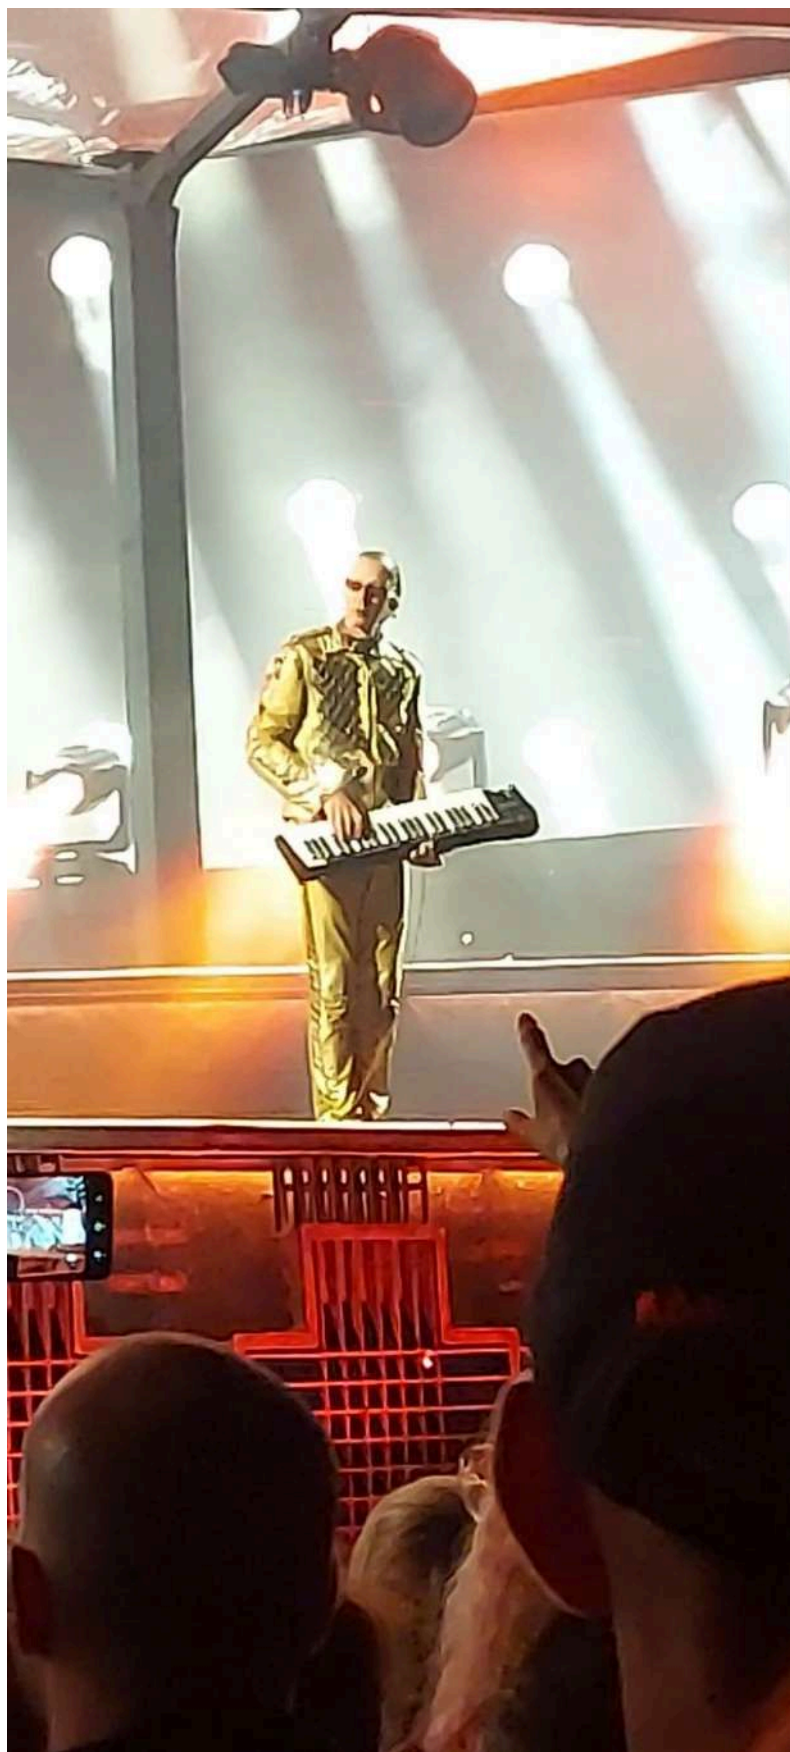

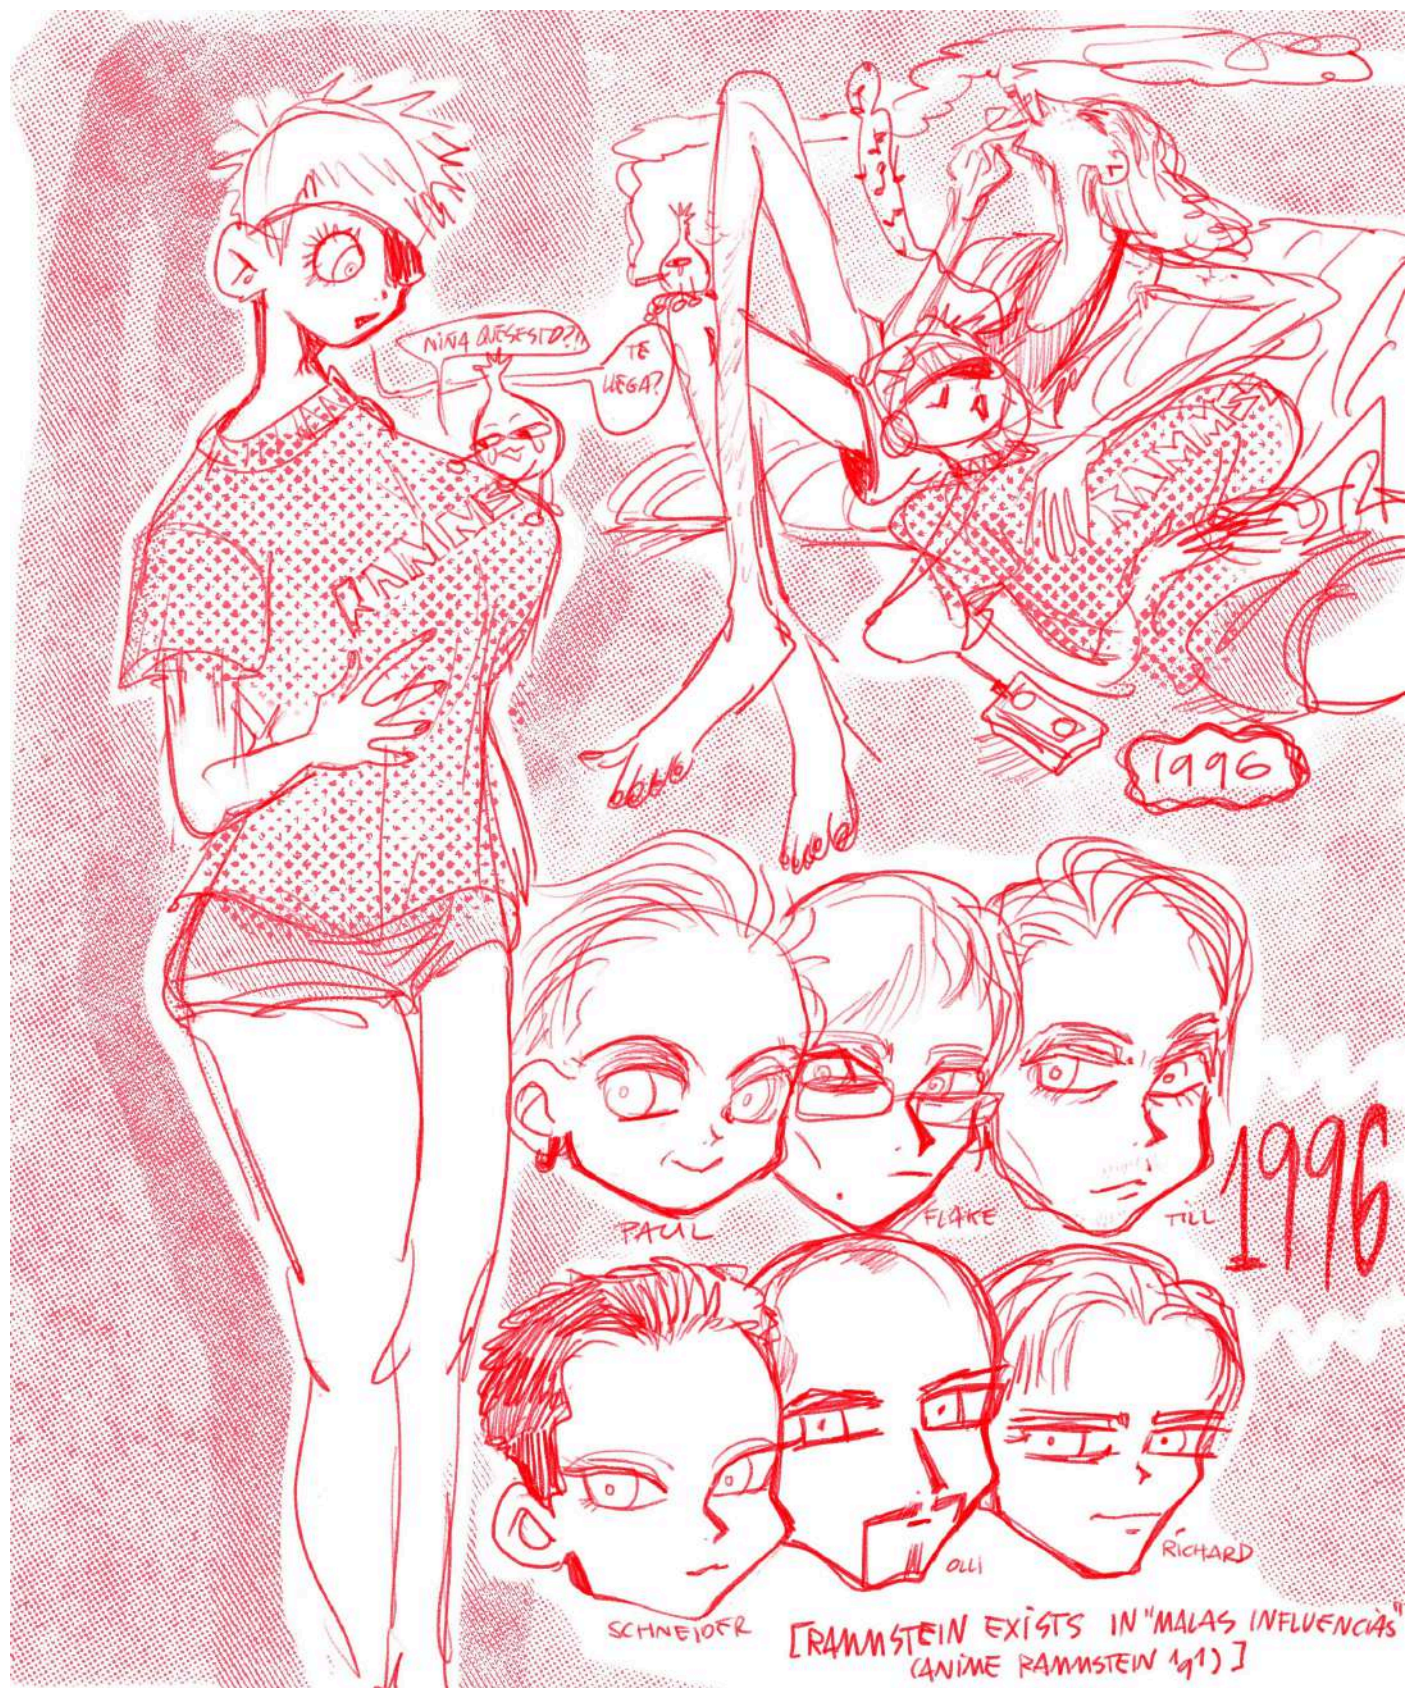

Colors.

I still can't believe I was THAT close. Simply an amazing experience. (Excuse the crappy pictures..)

Flake moments.

My OC's listen to Rammstein.

This literally happened at the concert I went to. I can rest in pieces.

Sehnsucht anniversary illustration that I really like the result. It was hard to do but very satisfactory in the end.

MEIN HERZ BRENNT AU.

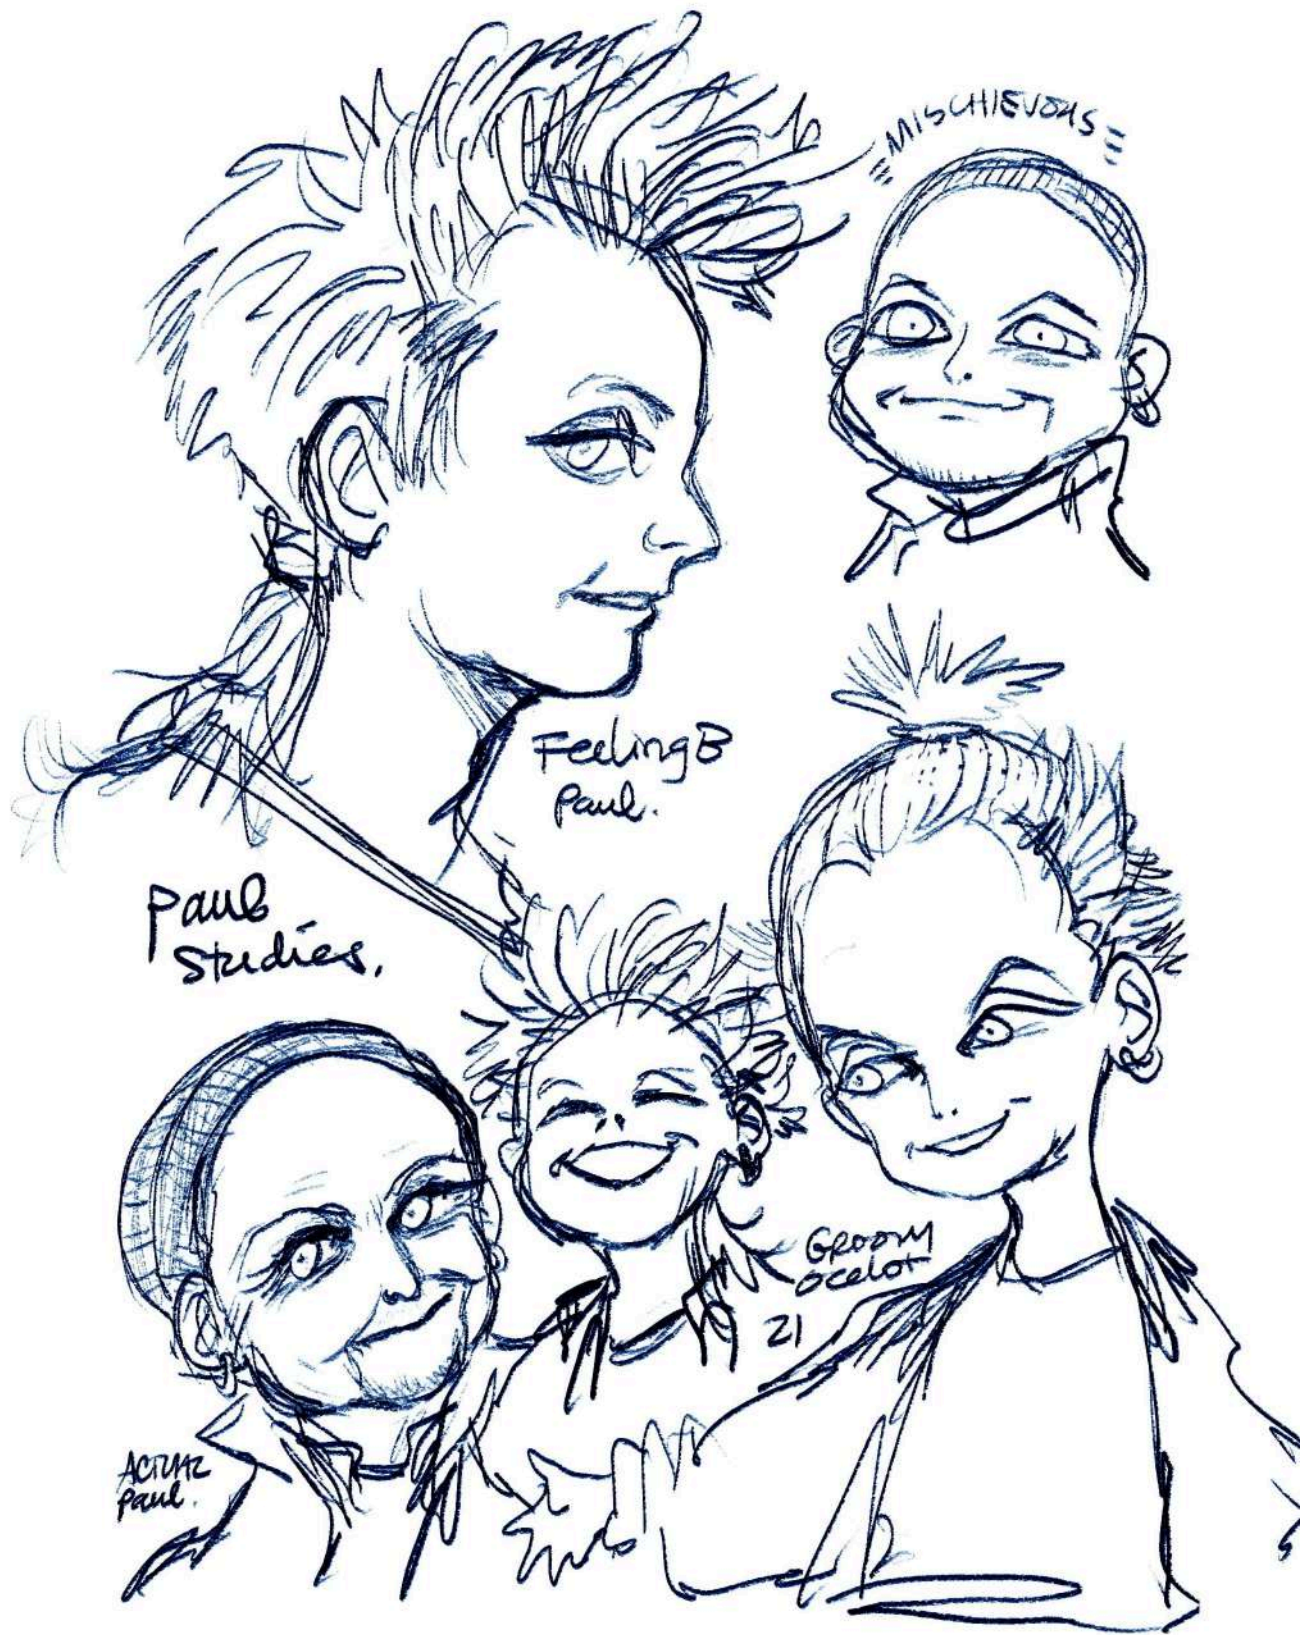

FOR THIS AU, I WAS THINKING OF THE GROUP AS THE KIDS ON THE VIDEO. THEY WOULD HAVE THEIR RESPECTIVE AGE GAPS. THEY WOULD TAKE CARE OF EACH OTHER, TILL BEING THE ELDEST FEELS IN CHARGE OF THEM. I IMAGINE THEM LIKE IN A SAD FAIRY TALE, IN AN ORPHANAGE, LIKE IN THE VIDEO - 1964 (MAYBE THEY CAN ALSO INTERACT WITH THEIR ADULT COUNTER PARTS) ALSO, THEY WOULD OF "HAUNTED" BY NIGHTMARES, FOLLOWING A BIT OF THE LYRICS OF THE SONG-- (THIS IS MY FIRST DRAFT, SO IT CAN CHANGE IN THE FUTURE DRAWINGS)

One of the last AUS I drew. Tiny Rammstein in Mein Herz Brent MV. They are kids in an orphanage that stick together. I maintained their age gaps, Till being the oldest and Oli the smallest. A lot to still work on but the base idea is set!

ZEIT

I really had a tender moment when Zeit MV was launched...The passing of time. Watching Du Riechst so Gut MV (1995) when they all are young and showing themselves bare chested, and how time has passed and they are still together after a whole life...Not only their physical changes but also them as humans. I drew this pieces and then some.

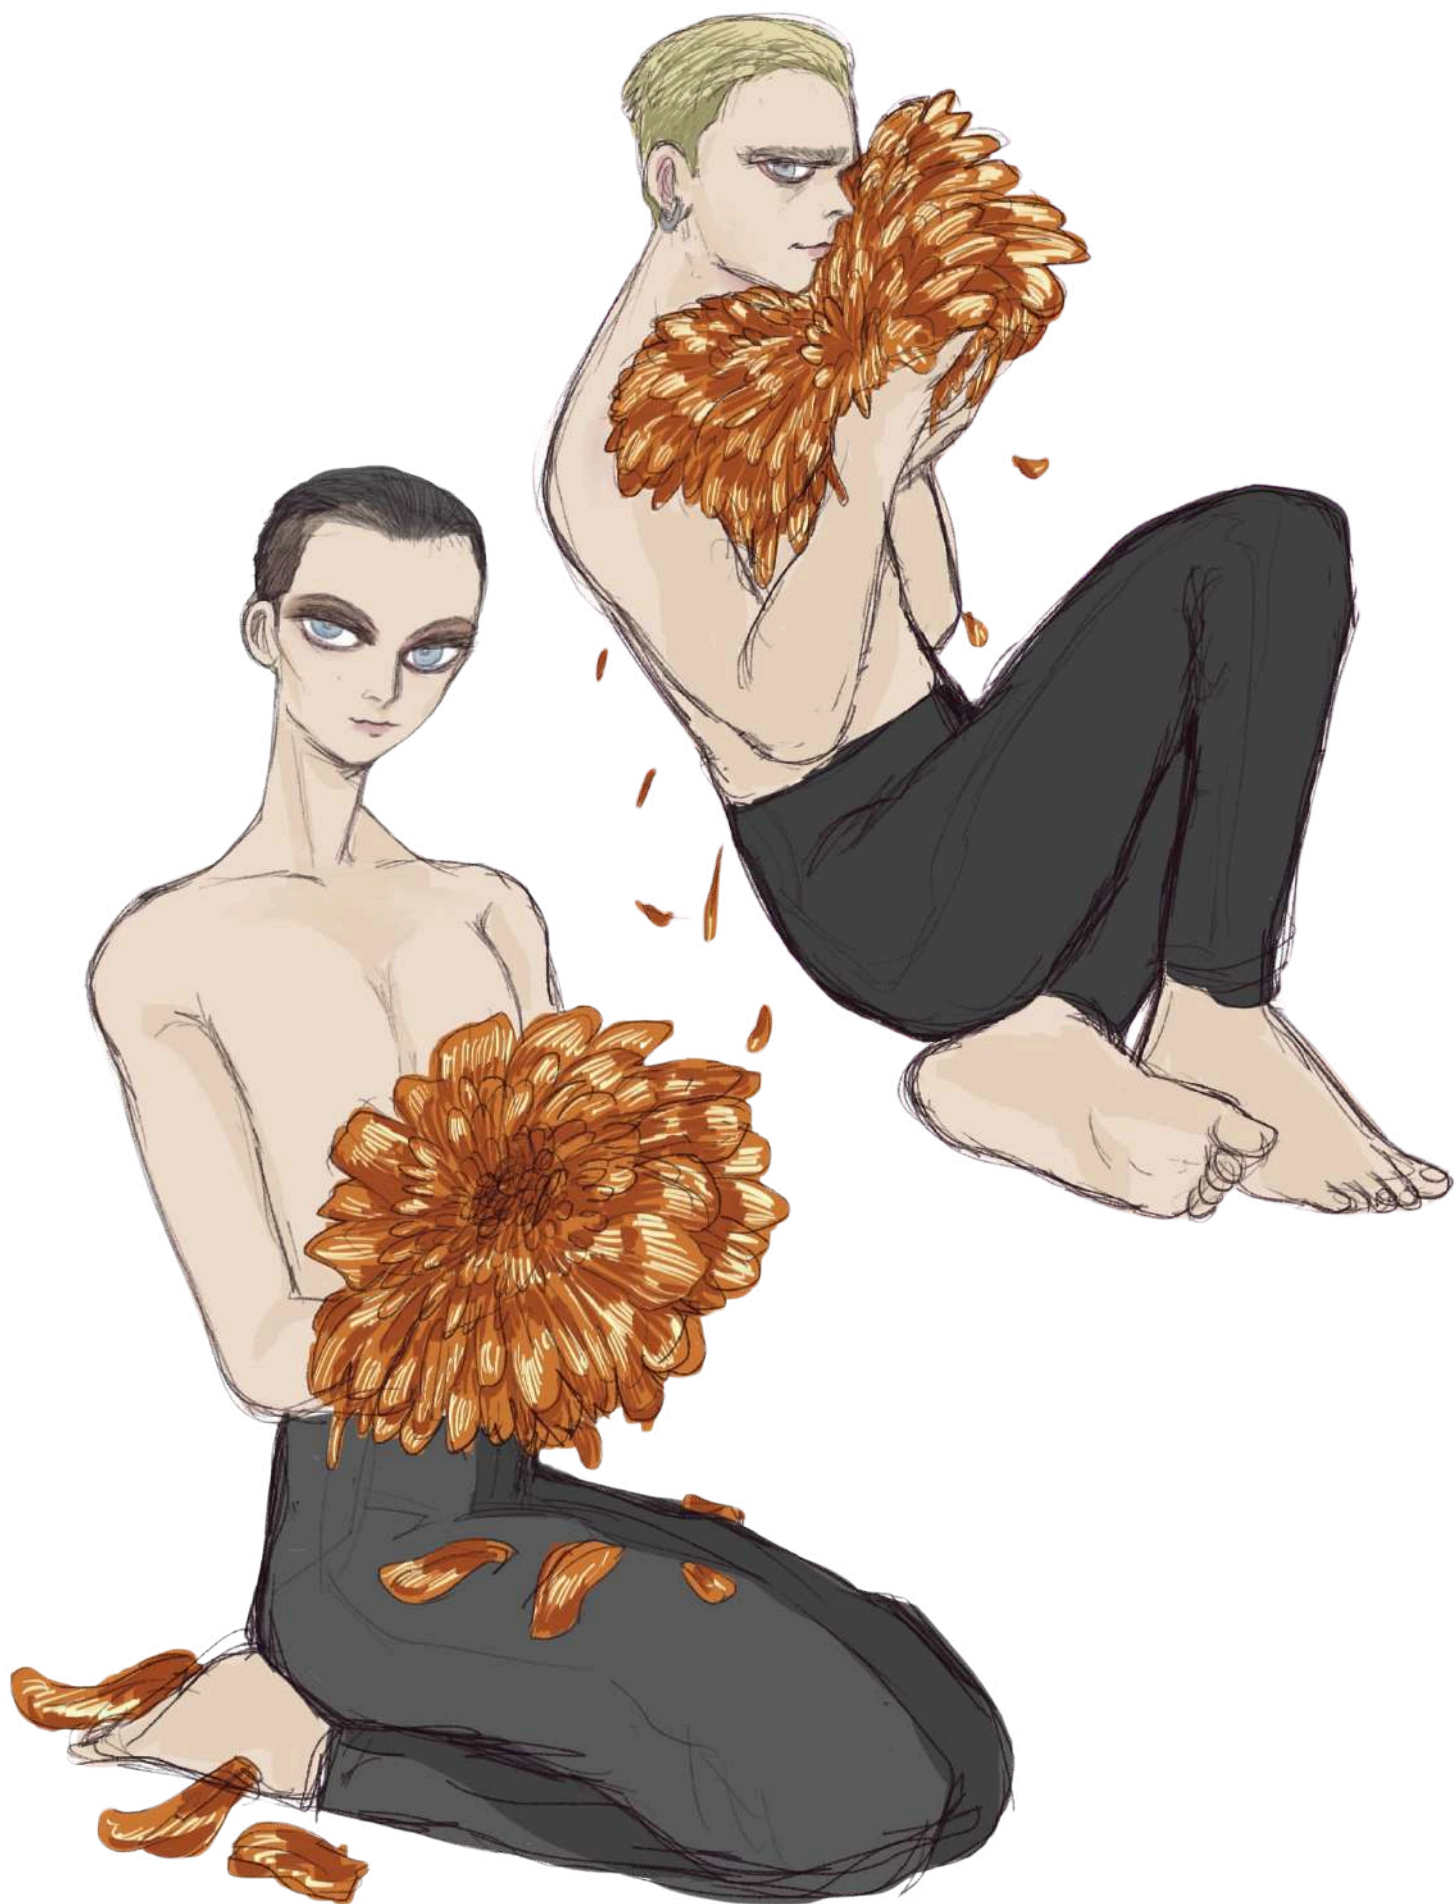

As I wrote before, Zeit shook me. I kept watching Dur Riechst so Gut and I simply adore it (even more than the remake of 98.)

I love them with the flowers, I had to connect them, Zeit and DRSg, starting with flowers and then becoming 'dust'.

The general vibe I wanted to emulate is old manga covers, especially Card Captor Sakura. The way the characters seem to glow over a black background created a hard impression on my brain as a kid.

Zick Zack also became a fave video, I love Doktor Flake and the concept of surgery to remain young, all of this fitting my existential crisis of aging and ceasing to exist.

Woah! So many drawings! There's still so much I want to draw inspired by them and their music, hopefully the time I get to draw more comes sooner than later.
I hope this compilation makes anyone smile : '3
Thank you so much for looking at the pages of this work.~
